- (a) payment of fair, adequate and prompt compensation; and
- (b) a right of access to the Court or a right to arbitration for the determination of the investor's interest or right and the amount of compensation to which he is entitled.

(3) Any compensation payable under this section shall be paid promptly and authorisation for its repatriation in convertible currency, where applicable, shall be issued.

Immigrant quota

30. Every business enterprise granted a certificate of incentives under this Act shall be entitled to an immigrant quota in accordance with the relevant laws governing matters of employment to non-citizens:

Provided that, for the purpose of the provisions of section 18, the Centre shall co-ordinate and facilitate the grant of the right provided under this section.

Obtaining credit from domestic sources by foreign investors

31.-(1) Subject to section 2, a foreign investor may, in relation to the business enterprise which he operates, obtain credit from domestic banks and financial institutions up to the limit established by the Bank of Tanzania in consultation with the Centre having regard to the amount of foreign capital invested in the business enterprise.

(2) A foreign investor who obtains credit in accordance with subsection (1) shall ensure that the proceeds of that credit are used solely for the purpose of carrying out the activities specified in his loan application.

(3) The bank granting the loan may, for the purposes of this section, appoint its officer or agent to verify the due application of the credit obtained under subsection (1).

PART V: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Appeal and review

32.-(1) A person who is aggrieved by a decision made by the Centre under this Act may appeal to the Minister.

(2) An investor who is aggrieved by the decision of the National Investment Steering Committee on the approval of incentives may make an application to the Committee for it to review its decision.

(3) The procedures of appeal or application for review shall be prescribed in the regulations.

Settlement of disputes

33.-(1) Where a dispute arises between an investor and the Centre or the Government in respect of a business enterprise, all efforts shall be made to settle the dispute through negotiations for an amicable settlement.

(2) A dispute between an investor and the Centre or the Government in respect of a business enterprise which is not settled through negotiations may be submitted to arbitration in accordance with any of the following methods as may be mutually agreed by the parties-

(a) in accordance with arbitration laws of Tanzania;

(b) in accordance with the rules of procedure for arbitration of the International Centre for the Settlement of Investment Disputes; or

(c) within the framework of any bilateral or multilateral agreement on investment protection agreed to by the Government of the United Republic and the government of the country where the investor originates.

Offences

34.-(1) A person who in the course of his official and penalties duties in the administration of this Act has possession of or control over any document or information obtained under this Act and who communicates that document or information or any part of it to any other person to whom he is not authorised to communicate it by any enactment or by the Board, commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five million shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to both.

(2) An employee of the Centre who has a duty to perform under this Act and fails to perform that duty or performs the duty recklessly shall be liable to the disciplinary action which the Board or the appropriate disciplinary authority may determine.

(3) A person who-

(a) knowingly or negligently gives false or misleading information;

(b) refuses or neglects to provide information which the Centre may reasonably require for the purposes of the enforcement of this Act; or

(c) refuses without lawful excuse to admit an authorised officer into the premises of his business enterprise or otherwise obstructs any inspection by an authorised officer in pursuit of monitoring functions, commits an offence and shall upon conviction be liable to a fine of not less than five million shillings but not exceeding ten million shillings or to imprisonment for a term of not less than six months but not exceeding twelve months or to both.

(4) Where an offence is committed by a body of persons, every director, partner, senior management officer or responsible officer of the body shall be deemed also to have committed that offence.

Regulations

35. The Minister may, upon advice by the Board, make regulations for giving effect the provisions of this Act.

Repeal Cap. 38 36.

The Tanzania Investment Act, 1997 is hereby repealed.

Transitional provisions

37.-(1) Notwithstanding the repeal under section 36, a certificate of incentives issued or agreement concluded under the repealed Act shall continue to be valid on the terms and conditions on which it was issued or concluded as if it were a certificate of incentives issued or agreement concluded under this Act, and shall be so valid until the expiration of the term under which its holder or beneficiary was entitled to enjoy any benefits, incentives or protection; and on expiration of the period specified, the provisions of this Act shall commence to apply.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), a person holding a certificate of incentives in accordance with the terms and conditions of the repealed Act shall not claim any benefits, protection or incentives under this Act until after the expiration of the period specified in subsection (1).

(3) Any matter pending before the Tanzania Investment Centre established under the repealed Act shall be deemed to be pending before the Centre.

(4) Any agreement continued in force by virtue of this section shall confer benefits previously enjoyed under the agreement before the commencement of this Act.

(5) Where a business enterprise in existence immediately before the commencement of this Act has duly complied with the provisions of the repealed Act in relation to any minimum equity requirement or capital investment specified in the repealed Act, the business enterprise shall be deemed lawful notwithstanding any provision of this Act to the contrary.
