 - b/ legal entities, including companies, corporations, business associations and other organisations, which are constituted or otherwise duly organised under the law of that Contracting Party and have their seat in the territory of that same Contracting Party;

Article 2

1. Each Contracting Party shall in its territory promote investments coming from the other Contracting Party and admit such investments in accordance with its provisions of law.
2. The present Agreement shall apply to investments made by investors of either Contracting Party in conformity with the provisions of law of the other Contracting Party in its territory from the first January 1973.

Article 3

1. Each Contracting Party shall ensure fair and equitable treatment to the investments coming from the other Contracting Party and shall not impair by unreasonable or discriminatory measures, the operation, management, maintenance, use, enjoyment or disposal thereof by those investors.

2. More particularly, each Contracting Party shall accord to such investments full security and protection which in any case shall not be less than that accorded to investments of investor of any third State.
3. If a Contracting Party has accorded special advantages to investors of any third State by virtue of agreements establishing customs unions, economic unions or similar institutions, or on the basis of interim agreements leading to such unions or institutions, that Contracting Party shall not be obliged to accord such advantages to investors of the other Contracting Party.
4. The treatment granted under the present Article shall not extend to taxes, fees, charges and to fiscal deductions and exemptions granted by either Contracting Party to investor of third States by virtue of a double taxation agreement or other agreements regarding matters of taxation, or on the basis of reciprocity with a third State.

Article 4

1. Neither Contracting Party shall take any measures depriving, directly or indirectly, investors of the other Contracting Party of their investments unless the following conditions are complied with:
 - a/ the measures are taken in the public interest and under due process of law;
 - b/ the measures are not discriminatory or contrary to any undertaking which the former Contracting Party may have given;

2. Investors of either Contracting Party whose investments suffer losses in the territory of the other Contracting Party owing to war or other armed conflict, state of emergency, revolt or riot, shall be accorded treatment no less favourable by such other Contracting Party than that Party accords to investors of any third State as regards restitution, indemnification, compensation or other valuable consideration. Such payments shall be freely transferable between the two Contracting Parties.

Article 5

Each Contracting Party in whose territory investments have been made by investors of the other Contracting Party shall grant those investors the free transfer of the payments relating to these investments, particularly:

The transfers shall be made after tax obligations have been complied with, according to laws and regulations in force in each Contracting Party.

The Contracting Parties undertake to facilitate the procedures necessary to make effective these transfers without undue delay or restrictions. In particular, a three month period should not be exceeded from the date the investor has duly submitted the necessary applications to carry out the transfer until the said transfer has effectively taken place. Therefore, each Contracting Party undertakes to carry out the formalities both for the purchase of the currency and its effective transfer abroad before the aforementioned deadline.

Article 6

If a Contracting Party, or its designated Agency, makes a payment under any sort of financial guarantee against non-commercial risks connected with an investment made by an investor of that Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party, the latter shall recognize the application of the principle of subrogation of the former Contracting Party in respect of the investor's rights and obligations with the exception of his property rights.

Therefore, this subrogation shall enable the former Contracting Party, or its designated Agency, to receive any payments for indemnification that the investor would have been entitled to. No subrogation shall be made in respect of property rights or any other rights deriving from ownership of the investment without obtaining the appropriate permits under the law on foreign investments in force in the Contracting Party in whose territory the investments has been made.

Article 7

If the provisions of law of either Contracting Party or obligations under international law existing at present or established hereafter between the Contracting Parties in addition to the present Agreement contain a regulation, whether general or specific, entitling investments by investors of the other Contracting Party to a treatment more favourable than is provided for by the present Agreement, such regulation shall to the extent that it is more favourable prevail over the present Agreement.

Article 8

If the two arbitrators are unable to reach an agreement, in the specified period, on the choice of the third arbitrator, either Party may invite the Secretary General of the United Nations to make the necessary appointment.
5. The arbitral tribunal shall decide on the basis of respect for the law, including particularly the present Agreement and other relevant agreements existing between the two Contracting Parties and the universally acknowledged rules and principles of international law.
6. Unless the Parties decide otherwise, the tribunal shall determine its own procedure.

Unless written notice of termination is given six months before the expiration of this period, the Agreement shall be considered as renewed on the same terms for a period of five years, and so forth.
2. In case of official notice as to the termination of the present Agreement, the provisions of Articles 1 to 11 shall continue to be effective for a further period of ten years for investments made before official notice was given.
