AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF TURKEY
AND
THE GOVERNMENT OF MONGOLIA
CONCERNING
THE RECIPROCAL ENCOURAGEMENT AND PROTECTION OF INVESTMENTS

The Government of the Republic of Turkey and the Government of Mongolia, hereinafter called the Parties.

Desiring to promote greater economic cooperation between them, particularly with respect to investment by investors of one Party in the territory of the other Party.

Recognizing that agreement upon the treatment to be accorded such investment will stimulate the flow of capital and technology and the economic development of the Parties.

Agreeing that fair and equitable treatment of investment is desirable in order to maintain a stable framework for investment and maximum effective utilization of economic resources. and

Having resolved to conclude an agreement concerning the reciprocal encouragement and protection of investments.

Hereby agree as follows:
ARTICLE I

Definitions

For the purpose of this Agreement:

1. The term "investor" means:

   (a) natural persons deriving their status as nationals of either Party according to its applicable law.

   (b) corporations, firms or business associations, incorporated or constituted under the law in force of either of the Parties as well as those legal entities incorporated or constituted in a third state in which an investor of one of the Parties has a substantial interest.

2. The term "substantial interest" referred in the provision of paragraph 1 of the present Article means such extent of interest as to permit the exercise of control or decisive influence on the legal entity. Whether an interest held by nationals or legal entities of either Party amounts to a substantial interest shall be decided in each case through consultations between the Parties.

3. (a) The term "investment", in conformity with the hosting Party's laws and regulations, shall include every kind of asset in particular, but not exclusively:

   (i) shares, stocks or any other form of participation in companies,

   (ii) returns reinvested, claims to money or any other rights to legitimate performance having financial value related to an investment.

   (iii) movable and immovable property, as well as any other rights in rem,

   (iv) copyrights, industrial and intellectual property rights such as patents, licenses, industrial designs, technical processes, as well as trademarks, goodwill, know-how and other similar rights.

   (v) business concessions conferred by law or by contract, including concessions to search for, cultivate, extract or exploit natural resources on the territory of each Party as defined hereafter.

4. The term "returns" means the amounts yielded by an investment and includes, in particular, though not exclusively, profit, interest, and dividends.

5. The term "territory" includes the land within the land boundaries, maritime areas and the continental shelf delimited by mutual agreement between the parties concerned over which the Party hosting the investment has sovereign rights or jurisdiction in accordance with international law.
ARTICLE 2
Promotion and Protection of Investments

1. Each Party shall permit in its territory investments, and activities associated therewith, on a basis no less favourable than that accorded in similar situations, to investments of investors of any third country, within the framework of its laws and regulations.

2. Each Party shall accord to these investments, once established, treatment no less favourable than that accorded in similar situations to investments of its own investors or to investments of investors of any third country, whichever is the most favourable.

3. Subject to the laws and regulations of the Parties relating to the entry, sojourn and employment of aliens:

   (a) nationals of either Party shall be permitted to enter and remain in the territory of the other Party for purposes of establishing, developing, administering or advising on the operation of an investment to which they, or an investor of the first Party that employs them, have committed or are in the process of committing a substantial amount of capital or other resources.

   (b) entities which are legally constituted under the applicable laws and regulations of one Party, and which are investments of investors of other Party, shall be permitted to engage managerial and technical personnel of their choice, regardless of nationality.

4. The provisions of this Article shall have no effect in relation to following agreements entered into by either of the Parties:

   (a) relating to any existing or future customs unions, regional economic organization or similar international agreements.

   (b) relating wholly or mainly to taxation.
ARTICLE 3
Expropriation and Compensation

1. Investments shall not be expropriated, nationalized or subject, directly or indirectly, to measures of similar effects except for a public purpose, in a non-discriminatory manner, upon payment of prompt, adequate and effective compensation, and in accordance with due process of law and the general principles of treatment provided for in Article 2 of this Agreement.

2. Compensation shall be equivalent to the real value of the expropriated investment immediately before the expropriatory action was taken or became known. Compensation shall be paid without delay and be freely transferable as described in paragraph 2 of Article 4.

3. Investors of either Party whose investments suffer losses in the territory of the other Party owing to war, insurrection, civil disturbance or other similar events shall be accorded by such other Party treatment no less favourable than that accorded to its own investors or to investors of any third country, whichever is the most favourable treatment, as regards any measures it adopts in relation to such losses.

ARTICLE 4
Repatriation and Transfer

1. Each Party shall permit in good faith all transfers related to an investment to be made freely and without unreasonable delay into and out of its territory. Such transfers include:

   (a) returns.

   (b) proceeds from the sale or liquidation of all or any part of an investment,

   (c) compensation pursuant to Article 3.

   (d) reimbursements and interest payments deriving from loans in connection with investments.

   (e) salaries, wages and other remunerations received by the nationals of one Party who have obtained in the territory of the other Party the corresponding work permits relative to an investment.

2. Transfers shall be made in the convertible currency in which the investment has been made or in any convertible currency at the rate of exchange in force at the date of transfer, unless otherwise agreed by the investor and the hosting Party.
ARTICLE 5

Subrogation

1. If the investment of an investor of one Party is insured against non-commercial risks under a system established by law, any subrogation of the insurer which stems from the terms of the insurance agreement shall be recognized by the other Party.

2. The insurer shall not be entitled to exercise any rights other than the rights which the investor would have been entitled to exercise.

3. Disputes between a Party and an insurer shall be settled in accordance with the provisions of Article 7 of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 6

Derogation

This Agreement shall not derogate from:

(a) laws and regulations, administrative practices or procedures or administrative or adjudicatory decisions of either Party,

(b) international legal obligations, or

(c) obligations assumed by either Party, including those contained in an investment agreement or an investment authorization.

that entitle investments or associated activities to treatment more favourable than that accorded by this Agreement in like situations.
ARTICLE 7

Settlement of Disputes Between One Party and Investors of the Other Party

1. Disputes between one of the Parties and one investor of the other Party, in connection with his investment, shall be notified in writing, including a detailed information, by the investor to the recipient Party of the investment. As far as possible, the investor and the concerned Party shall endeavour to settle these disputes by consultations and negotiations in good faith.

2. If these disputes cannot be settled in this way within six months following the date of the written notification mentioned in paragraph 1, the dispute can be submitted, as the investor may choose, to:

   (a) the International Center for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) set up by the "Convention on Settlement of Investment Disputes Between States and Nationals of other States";

   (b) an "ad hoc" court of arbitration laid down under the Arbitration Rules of Procedure of the United Nations Commission for International Trade Law (UNCITRAL);

   (c) the Institute of Arbitration of Chamber of Commerce of Stockholm, provided that, if the investor concerned has brought the dispute before the courts of justice of the Party that is a party to the dispute and a final award has not been rendered within one year.

3. The arbitration shall be based on:

   (a) the provisions of this Agreement;

   (b) the laws and regulations of the Party in whose territory the investment was made, including the rules relative to conflicts of law.

4. The arbitration awards shall be final and binding for all parties in dispute. Each Party commits itself to execute the award according to its national law.
ARTICLE 8

Settlement of Disputes Between the Parties

1. The Parties shall seek in good faith and a spirit of cooperation a rapid and equitable solution to any dispute between them concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement. In this regard, the Parties agree to engage in direct and meaningful negotiations to arrive at such solutions. If the Parties cannot reach an agreement within six months after the beginning of dispute between themselves through the foregoing procedure, the dispute may be submitted, upon the request of either Party, to an arbitral tribunal of three members.

2. Within two months of receipt of a request, each Party shall appoint an arbitrator. The two arbitrators shall select a third arbitrator as Chairman, who is a national of a third state. In the event either Party fails to appoint an arbitrator within the specified time, the other Party may request the President of the International Court of Justice to make the appointment.

3. If both arbitrators cannot reach an agreement about the choice of the Chairman within two months after their appointment, the Chairman shall be appointed upon the request of either Party by the President of the International Court of Justice.

4. If, in the cases specified under paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article, the President of the International Court of Justice is prevented from carrying out the said function or if he is a national of either Party, the appointment shall be made by the Vice-President, and if the Vice-President is prevented from carrying out the said function or if he is a national of either Party, the appointment shall be made by the most senior member of the Court who is not a national of either Party.

5. The tribunal shall have three months from the date of the selection of the Chairman to agree upon rules of procedure consistent with the other provisions of this Agreement. In the absence of such agreement, the tribunal shall request the President of the International Court of Justice to designate rules of procedure, taking into account generally recognized rules of international arbitral procedure.

6. Unless otherwise agreed, all submissions shall be made and all hearings shall be completed within eight months after the date of selection of the Chairman, and the tribunal shall render its decision within two months after the date of the final submissions or the date of the closing of the hearings, whichever is later. The arbitral tribunal shall reach its decisions, which shall be final and binding, by a majority of votes.

7. Each Party shall bear the costs of its own member of the tribunal and of its representation in the arbitral proceedings: the costs of the Chairman and remaining costs shall be borne in equal parts by the Parties. The tribunal may, however, in its discretion direct that a higher proportion of costs shall be borne by one of the two Parties, and this award shall be binding on both parties.
8. A dispute shall not be submitted to an international arbitration court under the provisions of this Article, if the same dispute has been brought before another international arbitration court under the provisions of Article 7 and is still before the court. This will not impair the engagement in direct and meaningful negotiations between both Parties.

ARTICLE 9

Entering into Force

1. This Agreement shall enter into force on the date on which the exchange of instruments of ratification has been completed. It shall remain in force for a period of ten years and shall continue in force unless terminated in accordance with paragraph 2 of this Article. It shall apply to investments existing at the time of entry into force as well as to investments made or acquired thereafter.

2. Either Party may, by giving one year's written notice to the other Party, terminate this Agreement at the end of the initial ten year period or at any time thereafter.

3. This Agreement may be amended by written agreement between the Parties. Any amendment shall enter into force when each Party has notified the other that it has completed all internal requirements for entry into force of such amendment.

4. With respect to investments made or acquired prior to the date of termination of this Agreement and to which this Agreement otherwise applies, the provisions of all of the other Articles of this Agreement shall thereafter continue to be effective for a further period of ten years from such date of termination.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the respective plenipotentiaries have signed this Agreement.

DONE at Ankara on the day of 16.3.1998 in the Turkish, Mongolian and English languages all of which are equally authentic.

In case of divergence of interpretation the English text shall prevail.
