

AGREEMENT

BETWEEN

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF PAKISTAN

AND

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF YEMEN

ON

THE RECIPROCAL PROMOTION AND PROTECTION OF INVESTMENTS.

The Government of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan and the Government of the Republic of Yemen (hereafter referred to as the Contracting Parties).

Desiring to intensify economic cooperation between the two countries, and intending to create and maintain favorable conditions for capital investment by investors of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party; and acknowledging that offering encouragement and mutual protection to such investment, based on the investment laws and regulations in effect in both Contracting Parties, and this Agreement, will contribute to stimulating investment ventures, which foster the prosperity of both Contracting Parties,

Hereby agree as follows:

Article I DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Agreement:

1. The term "investment" shall mean any kind of property or asset invested after the entry into force of this agreement by an investor (or investors) of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party accepted by that Contracting Party as "investment" in conformity with laws and regulations of that Party. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the term "investment" comprise, in particular, but not exclusively;

2. In case the investor and one entity of the other Contracting Parties have stipulated an investment agreement, the procedure foreseen in such investment Agreement shall apply.
3. In the event that such dispute cannot be settled amicably within six months of the date of the written application for settlement, the investor in question may submit the dispute for settlement to :
 - a) The Government of the Contracting Party within whose territorial jurisdiction investment is made or
 - b) An ad hoc arbitration tribunal , in compliance with the arbitration laws of the Contracting Party in which the investment is made or:
 - c) The UN Commission on the International Trade law (UNCITRAL), by mutual consent of the investor and the Contracting Party concerned

d) The International Center for Settlement of Investment Disputes for the implementation of the arbitration procedures under the Washington Convention of 18 March 1965 on the settlement of investment disputes between States and nationals of other States, if or as soon as both the Contracting Parties have acceded to it.

4. Both Contracting Parties shall refrain from negotiating through diplomatic channels any matter relating to an arbitration procedure or judicial procedures underway until these procedures have been concluded and one of the Contracting Parties has failed to comply with the ruling of the Arbitration Tribunal or the Court of law within the period envisaged by the ruling, or else within the period which can be determined on the basis of international or domestic law provisions which can be applied to the case.

Article 10

SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES BETWEEN THE CONTRACTING PARTIES.

1. Any disputes which may arise between the Contracting Parties relating to the interpretation and application of this agreement shall, as far as possible, be settled amicably through diplomatic channels.

2. In the event that the dispute cannot be settled within six months of the date on which one of the Contracting Parties notifies, in writing, the other Contracting Party, the dispute shall at the request of one of the Contracting Parties, be submitted to Arbitration Tribunal as provided in this Article.

3. The Arbitration Tribunal shall be constituted of three arbitrators. Each Contracting Party shall appoint one arbitrator, within two months from the time a request for arbitration from one Party is received by the other. The two arbitrators shall, within three months, choose the third arbitrator. Such third arbitrator shall act as the presiding arbitrator of the Tribunal.

4. If, within the period specified in paragraph 3 of this Article, the appointments have not been made, each of the two Contracting Parties can, in default of other arrangement, ask the President of the International Court of Justice to make the appointments. In the event that the President of the Court is a national of one of the Contracting Parties or if is, for any reason, unable to make the appointments, the application shall be made to the Vice-President. If for any reason the Vice President of the Court is a national of one of the Contracting Parties, or is unable to make the appointment the most senior member of the International Court of Justice, who is not a national of one of the Contracting Parties, shall be requested to make the appointments.

5. The Arbitration Tribunal shall take decision by a majority vote, and its decisions shall be binding. Both Contracting Parties shall pay the costs of their own arbitrators and of their representative at the hearings. The Presidents costs and any other costs shall be divided equally between the Contracting Parties.

6. The Arbitration Tribunal shall lay down its own procedures.

Article 11

RELATIONS BETWEEN GOVERNMENTS

The provisions of this Agreement shall be applied irrespective of whether or not the Contracting Parties have diplomatic or consular relations.

Article 12
APPLICATION OF OTHER PROVISIONS

1. If a matter is governed both by this Agreement and by another international agreement to which both Contracting Parties are signatories, the most favorable provisions shall be applied to the Contracting Parties and to their investors.
2. Whenever the treatment accorded by one Contracting Party to the investors of the other Contracting Party, according to its laws and regulations or other provisions of specific contract, investment authorization or agreement, is more favorable than that provided under this Agreement, the most favorable treatment shall apply to that specific case.

Article 13
ENTRY INTO FORCE.

This Agreement shall enter into force from the date on which the two Contracting Parties notify each other that their respective constitutional procedures have been completed.

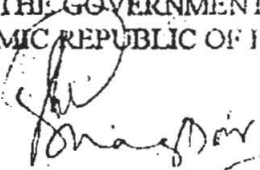

Article 14
DURATION AND EXPIRY.

1. This Agreement shall remain valid for a period of 10 years from the date of the notification under Article 13 and shall remain in force for a further period of 5 years thereafter, until one of the Contracting Parties give notice in writing to the Other, not later than one year before its expiry date, of its intention to terminate it.
2. In the case of investment effected prior to the expiry dates, as provided under paragraph 1 of this Article, the provisions of the Article 1 to 13 shall remain effective for a further ten years after the aforementioned dates.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being duly authorized by their respective Governments, have signed the present Agreement.
