ARTICLE 4
Exception

The provisions of this Agreement relating to the granting of treatment not less favourable than that accorded to its own investors or the investors of any third State shall not be construed so as to oblige one Contracting Party to extend to the investors of the other Contracting Party the benefit of any treatment, preference or privilege resulting from:

(a) requisition of their investment or property by its forces or authorities,

ARTICLE 6
Nationalization or Expropriation

(a) is done for a public purpose,
(b) is accomplished under due procedures of law,

be readily ascertained, the compensation shall be determined on equitable principles taking into account, inter alia, the capital invested, depreciation, capital already repatriated, replacement value, goodwill and other relevant factors. In the event that payment of compensation is delayed, such compensation shall be paid in an amount which would put the investor in a position no less favourable than the position in which he would have been had the compensation been paid immediately after the date of expropriation or nationalization. To achieve this goal the total compensation shall include an appropriate interest at a commercially reasonable rate as agreed upon by both Parties or at such rate as prescribed by law, for the currency in which the investment is denominated from the date of nationalization or expropriation until the date of payment.

iv) When a Contracting Party nationalizes or expropriates the investment of a legal person which is established or licenced under the law in force in its territory and in which the other Contracting Party or any of its investors owns shares, stocks, debentures or other rights of interest, it shall ensure that prompt, adequate and effective compensation is received and allowed to be repatriated.

(e) Additional funds necessary for the maintenance of the investment.

(2) Without restricting the provisions of Article 3 of this Agreement the Contracting Parties undertake to accord to transfers referred to in Paragraph (1) of this Article a treatment as favourable as that accorded to transfers originating from investment made by investors of any third State.
(3) The exchange rates applicable to such transfers in paragraph (1) of this Article shall be the rate of exchange prevailing at the date of transfer.

(4) The term "without delay" means the transfers made within a period normally required to prepare the formalities of transfer. The time runs from the date when the application together with the necessary documents were submitted, in the proper way, to the competent authorities and should not exceed, in any circumstances, a period of two months.

ARTICLE 8

(1) If a Contracting Party (or its designated Agency) makes a payment to any of its investors under an indemnity or a guarantee it has granted in respect of an investment or any part thereof in the territory of the host Contracting Party, or has otherwise become subrogated to any of the rights of such investors with respect to such investors, the host Contracting Party shall recognize:

(a) the right of the other Contracting Party (or its designated Agency) arising from the assignment, indemnity or other subrogation, whether under law or pursuant to a legal transaction, and

(b) that the other Contracting Party (or its designated Agency) is entitled by virtue of subrogation to enforce such right.
(2) If such other Contracting Party acquires any amounts in such manner as above, it shall be accorded in respect thereof a treatment not less favourable than that accorded to the funds of investors of the host Contracting Party or of any third Party deriving from investments or associated activities similar to those in which the party indemnified was engaged.

ARTICLE 9
Settlement of Investment Disputes

(1) Any dispute between a Contracting Party and an investor of the other Contracting Party concerning investment shall be settled amicably between the disputing parties.

(2) If such disputes cannot be settled amicably then each Contracting Party consents to submit either to the competent court of the host Contracting Party or to the International Centre for the Settlement of Investment Disputes (hereinafter referred to as "the Centre") for settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of other States opened for signature at Washington on 18 March, 1965 (hereinafter referred to as the "the Convention") any dispute arising between that Contracting Party and an investor of the other Contracting Party which involves:
i) an obligation entered into by that Contracting Party with the investor of the other Contracting Party regarding an investment or associated activities made by such investor; or

ii) an alleged breach of any right conferred or created by this Agreement with respect to an investment or associated activities made by such investor.

(3) If a legal person which is incorporated or constituted under the law in force in the territory of one Contracting Party and in which before such a dispute arises the majority of shares are owned by investors of the other Contracting Party shall in accordance with Article 25(2)(b) of the Convention be treated for the purposes of the Convention as an investor of the other Contracting Party.

(4) i) If any dispute of the type referred to in paragraph 2 should arise, the Contracting Party and the investor concerned shall seek to resolve the dispute through consultation and negotiation. If the dispute cannot thus be resolved within three (3) months, then if the investor concerned also consents in writing to submit the dispute to the Centre for settlement by conciliation or arbitration under the Convention, either Contracting Party to the dispute may institute proceedings by addressing a request to that effect to the Secretary-General of the Centre as set forth in Articles 28 and 36 of the Convention, provided that the investor concerned has not submitted the dispute to the courts of justice or administrative tribunals or agencies of competent jurisdiction of the Contracting Party that is party to the dispute.

ii) In the event of disagreement as to whether conciliation or arbitration is the more appropriate procedure the opinion of the investor concerned shall prevail. The Contracting Party which is a party to the dispute shall not raise as an objection, defence, or right of set-off at any stage of the proceedings or enforcement of an award the fact that the investor which is the other party to the dispute has received pursuant to an insurance or guarantee contract an indemnity or other compensation for all or part of its losses or damages.

(5) Neither Contracting Party shall pursue through diplomatic channels any dispute referred to the Centre unless:

i) the Secretary-General of the Centre, or a conciliation commission or an arbitral tribunal constituted by it, decided that the dispute is not within the jurisdiction of the Centre, or

ii) the other Contracting Party should fail to abide by or to comply with any award rendered by an arbitral tribunal.
ARTICLE 10

Settlement of Disputes between Contracting Parties

(1) Should any disputes arise concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement the Contracting Parties shall try to settle them by negotiations.

(2) If the disputes cannot be so settled they shall, upon the request of either Contracting Party, be submitted to an ad hoc Arbitral tribunal in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

(3) The Arbitral Tribunal shall be constituted in the following way: within three months from the receipt of the request for arbitration, each Contracting Party shall appoint one arbitrator. The two arbitrators shall then select a national of a third State who, on the approval by the two Contracting Parties, shall act as Chairman of the Tribunal (hereinafter referred to as the Chairman). The Chairman shall be appointed within three months from the date of appointment of the other two arbitrators.

(4) If within the period specified in Paragraph (3) of this Article either Contracting Party shall not have appointed its arbitrator or the two arbitrators shall not have agreed on the Chairman, a request may be made to the President of the International Court of Justice to make the appointment. If he happens to be a national of either Contracting Party or if he is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the Vice-President shall be invited to make the appointment. If the Vice_President also happens to be a national of either Contracting Party or is prevented from discharging the said function, the member of the International Court of Justice next in seniority who is not a national of either Contracting Party shall be invited to make the appointment.

(5) The Arbitral Tribunal shall reach its decision by a majority of votes. Such decision shall be binding. Each Contracting Party shall bear the cost of its own arbitrator and its counsel in the arbitral proceedings; the cost of the Chairman and the remaining costs shall be borne in equal parts by both Contracting Parties. The tribunal shall determine its own procedures.

ARTICLE 11
Application to investments

(1) This Agreement shall also apply to investments made in the territory of either Contracting Party in accordance with its legislation or rules or regulations by investors of the other Contracting Party prior to the entry into force of this Agreement.

However the Agreement shall not apply to disputes arising until entry into force of this Agreement.

Relation between Governments

The provisions of the present Agreement shall apply irrespective of the existence of diplomatic or consular relations between the Contracting Parties.

Application of Other Rules and Special Commitments

(1) Where a matter is governed simultaneously both by this Agreement and by other agreements to which both the Contracting Parties are parties or general principles of law commonly recognized by both Contracting Parties or domestic law of the host Party, nothing in this Agreement shall prevent either Contracting Party or any of its investors who own investments in the territory of the other Contracting Party from taking advantage of whichever rules are the more favourable to their cases.

(2) Investments subject to special contracts or commitments undertaken by one Contracting Party with respect to the investors of the other Contracting Party shall be governed, notwithstanding the provisions of this Agreement, by the terms of these contracts and commitments in so far as their provisions are more favourable than those provided by this Agreement.

Entry into Force

This Agreement shall enter into force thirty (30) days after the latter date on which either Contracting Party notifies the other that its constitutional requirements or laws for the entry into force of this Agreement have been fulfilled.
