

A G R E E M E N T
between the Republic of Austria and the Republic of Yemen for the Promotion and Protection of Investments

THE REPUBLIC OF AUSTRIA AND THE REPUBLIC OF YEMEN
hereinafter referred to as "Contracting Parties",

DESIRING to create favourable conditions for greater economic co-operation between the Contracting Parties,

RECOGNISING that the promotion and protection of investments may strengthen the readiness for such investments and hereby make an important contribution to the development of economic relations,

REAFFIRMING their commitment to the observance of internationally recognised labour standards,

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

CHAPTER ONE: GENERAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 1

Definitions

For the purpose of this Agreement

- (1) "investor of a Contracting Party" means:
- (a) a natural person having the nationality of a Contracting Party in accordance with its applicable law, or
 - (b) any legal person or entity constituted or organised under the applicable law of a Contracting Party
- making or having made an investment in the other Contracting Party's territory.
- (2) "investment by an investor of a Contracting Party" means every kind of asset in the territory of one Contracting Party, owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by an investor of the other Contracting Party, including:
- (a) an enterprise constituted or organised under the applicable law of the first Contracting Party;
 - (b) shares, stocks and other forms of equity participation in an enterprise as referred to in subparagraph (a), and rights derived therefrom;
 - (c) bonds, debentures, loans and other forms of debt and rights derived therefrom;
 - (d) any right whether conferred by law or contract;
 - (e) claims to money and claims to performance pursuant to a contract having an economic value related to an investment;
 - (f) intellectual property rights as defined in the multilateral agreements concluded under the auspices of the World Intellectual Property Organisation, including industrial property rights, copyright, trademarks, patents, industrial designs and technical processes, know-how, trade secrets, trade names and goodwill;
 - (g) any other tangible or intangible, movable or immovable property, or any related property rights, such as leases, mortgages, liens, pledges or usufructs.
- (3) "returns" means the amounts yielded by an investment and, in particular, profits, interests, capital gains, dividends, royalties, licence fees and other fees.

- (4) "territory" means with respect to each Contracting Party the land territory, internal waters, maritime and airspace under its sovereignty, including the exclusive economic zone and the continental shelf where the Contracting Party exercises, in conformity with international law, sovereign rights and jurisdiction.

ARTICLE 2

Promotion and Admission of Investments

- (1) Each Contracting Party shall, according to its laws and regulations, promote and admit investments by investors of the other Contracting Party.
- (2) Any alteration of the form in which assets are invested or reinvested shall not affect their character as an investment provided that such alteration is in accordance with the laws and regulations of the Contracting Party in whose territory the investment was made.

ARTICLE 3

Treatment of Investments

- (1) Each Contracting Party shall accord to investments by investors of the other Contracting Party fair and equitable treatment and full and constant protection and security.
- (2) A Contracting Party shall not impair by unreasonable or discriminatory measures the management, operation, maintenance, use, enjoyment, sale and liquidation of an investment by investors of the other Contracting Party.
- (3) Each Contracting Party shall accord to investors of the other Contracting Party and to their investments treatment no less favourable than that it accords to its own investors and their investments or to investors of any third country and their investments with respect to the management, operation, maintenance, use, enjoyment, sale and liquidation of an investment, whichever is more favourable to the investor.

- (4) No provision of this Agreement shall be construed as to oblige a Contracting Party to extend to the investors of the other Contracting Party and to their investments the present or future benefit of any treatment, preference or privilege resulting from
- (a) any membership in a free trade area, customs union, common market, economic community or any multilateral agreement on investment;
 - (b) any international agreement, international arrangement or domestic legislation regarding taxation.

ARTICLE 4

Transparency

- (1) Each Contracting Party shall promptly publish, or otherwise make publicly available, its laws, regulations, procedures as well as international agreements which may affect the operation of the Agreement.
- (2) Each Contracting Party shall promptly respond to specific questions and provide, upon request, information to the other Contracting Party on matters referred to in paragraph (1).
- (3) No Contracting Party shall be required to furnish or allow access to information concerning particular investors or investments the disclosure of which would impede law enforcement or would be contrary to its laws and regulations protecting confidentiality.

ARTICLE 5Expropriation and Compensation

- (1) A Contracting Party shall not expropriate or nationalise directly or indirectly an investment of an investor of the other Contracting Party or take any measures having equivalent effect (hereinafter referred to as expropriation) except:
 - (a) for a purpose which is in the public interest,
 - (b) on a non-discriminatory basis,
 - (c) in accordance with due process of law, and
 - (d) accompanied by payment of prompt, adequate and effective compensation in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3) below.

- (2) Compensation shall:
 - (a) be paid without delay and be calculated in accordance with internationally accepted valuation principles taking into account the case of delay of payment.
 - (b) be equivalent to the fair market value of the expropriated investment immediately before the expropriation or the impending expropriation has become publicly known, whichever is earlier.
 - (c) be paid and made freely transferable to the country designated by the claimants concerned and in the currency of the country of which the claimants are nationals or in any freely convertible currency accepted by the claimants.

- (3) An investor of a Contracting Party which claims to be affected by expropriation by the other Contracting Party shall have the right to prompt review of its case, including the valuation of its investment and the payment of compensation in accordance with the provisions of this Article, by a judicial authority or another competent and independent authority of the latter Contracting Party.

ARTICLE 6

Compensation for Losses

An investor of a Contracting Party which has suffered a loss relating to its investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party due to war or to other armed conflict, state of emergency, revolution, insurrection, civil disturbance, or any other similar event, or acts of God or force majeure, in the territory of the latter Contracting Party, shall be accorded by the latter Contracting Party, as regards restitution, indemnification, compensation or any other settlement, treatment no less favourable than that which it accords to its own investors or to investors of any third state, whichever is most favourable to the investor.

ARTICLE 7

Transfers

- (1) Each Contracting Party shall guarantee that all payments relating to an investment by an investor of the other Contracting Party may be freely transferred into and out of its territory without delay. Such transfers shall include, in particular:
 - (a) the initial capital and additional amounts to maintain or increase an investment;
 - (b) returns;
 - (c) payments made under a contract including a loan agreement;
 - (d) proceeds from the sale or liquidation of all or any part of an investment;
 - (e) payments of compensation under Articles 5 and 6;
 - (f) payments arising out of the settlement of a dispute;
 - (g) earnings and other remuneration of personnel engaged from abroad in connection with an investment.

- (2) Each Contracting Party shall further guarantee that such transfers may be made in a freely convertible currency at the market rate of exchange prevailing on the date of transfer in the territory of the Contracting Party from which the transfer is made.

- (3) In the absence of a market for foreign exchange, the rate to be used shall be the most recent exchange rate for conversion of currencies into Special Drawing Rights.
- (4) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1) to (3), a Contracting Party may prevent a transfer through the equitable, non-discriminatory and good faith application of measures to protect the rights of creditors, relating to or ensuring compliance with laws and regulations on the issuing, trading and dealing in securities, futures and derivatives, reports or records of transfer, or in connection with criminal offences and orders or judgements in administrative and adjudicatory proceedings, provided that such measures and their application shall not be used as a means of avoiding the Contracting Party's commitments or obligations under this Agreement.

ARTICLE 8

Subrogation

If a Contracting Party or its designated agency makes a payment under an indemnity, guarantee or contract of insurance given in respect of an investment by an investor in the territory of the other Contracting Party, the latter Contracting Party shall recognise without prejudice to the rights of the investor under Chapter Two Part One the assignment of any right or claim of such investor to the former Contracting Party or its designated agency and the right of the former Contracting Party or its designated agency to exercise by virtue of subrogation any such right and claim to the same extent as its predecessor in title.

ARTICLE 9

Other Obligations

- (1) Each Contracting Party shall observe any obligation it may have entered into with regard to specific investments by investors of the other Contracting Party.

- (2) If the laws of either Contracting Party or obligations under international law existing at present or established hereafter between the Contracting Parties in addition to the present Agreement contain rules, whether general or specific, entitling investments by nationals or enterprises of the other Contracting Party to a treatment more favourable than is provided for by the present Agreement, such rules shall to the extent that they are more favourable prevail over the present Agreement.

ARTICLE 10

Denial of Benefits

A Contracting Party may deny the benefits of this Agreement to an investor of the other Contracting Party and to its investments, if investors of a Non-Contracting Party own or control the first mentioned investor and that investor has no substantial business activity in the territory of the Contracting Party under whose law it is constituted or organised.

CHAPTER TWO: DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

PART ONE: Settlement of Disputes between an Investor and a Contracting Party

ARTICLE 11

Scope and Standing

This Part applies to disputes between a Contracting Party and an investor of the other Contracting Party concerning an alleged breach of an obligation of the former under this Agreement which causes loss or damage to the investor or its investment.

ARTICLE 12Means of Settlement, Time Periods

- (1) A dispute between a Contracting Party and an investor of the other Contracting Party, shall, if possible, be settled by negotiation or consultation. If it is not so settled, the investor may choose to submit it for resolution:
- (a) to the competent courts or administrative tribunals of the Contracting Party, party to the dispute;
 - (b) in accordance with any applicable previously agreed dispute settlement procedure; or
 - (c) in accordance with this Article to:
 - (i) the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes ("the Centre"), established pursuant to the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of Other States ("the ICSID Convention"), if the Contracting Party of the investor and the Contracting Party, party to the dispute, are both parties to the ICSID Convention;
 - (ii) the Centre under the rules governing the Additional Facility for the Administration of Proceedings by the Secretariat of the Centre, if the Contracting Party of the investor or the Contracting Party, party to the dispute, but not both, is a party to the ICSID Convention;
 - (iii) a sole arbitrator or an ad hoc arbitration tribunal established under the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law ("UNCITRAL");
 - (iv) the International Chamber of Commerce, by a sole arbitrator or an ad hoc tribunal under its rules of arbitration.
- (2) A dispute may be submitted for resolution pursuant to paragraph 1 (c) of this Article after 60 days from the date notice of intent to do so was provided to the Contracting Party, party to the dispute, but not later than five years from the date the investor first acquired or should have acquired knowledge of the events which gave rise to the dispute.

ARTICLE 13

Contracting Party Consent

- (1) Each Contracting Party hereby gives its unconditional consent to the submission of a dispute to international arbitration in accordance with this Part. However, a dispute may not be submitted to international arbitration if a local court in either Contracting Party has rendered its decision on the dispute.

- (2) The consent referred to in paragraph (1) implies the renunciation of the requirement that the internal administrative or juridical remedies should be exhausted.

ARTICLE 14

Place of Arbitration

Any arbitration under this Part shall, at the request of any party to the dispute, be held in a state that is party to the New York Convention. Claims submitted to arbitration under this Part shall be considered to arise out of a commercial relationship or transaction for purposes of Article 1 of the New York Convention.

ARTICLE 15

Indemnification

A Contracting Party shall not assert as a defence, counter-claim, right of set-off or for any other reason, that indemnification or other compensation for all or part of the alleged damages has been received or will be received pursuant to an indemnity, guarantee or insurance contract.

ARTICLE 16
Applicable Law

- (1) A tribunal established under this Part shall decide the dispute in accordance with this Agreement and applicable rules and principles of international law.
- (2) Issues in dispute under Article 9 shall be decided, absent other agreement, in accordance with the law of the Contracting Party, party to the dispute, the law governing the authorisation or agreement and such rules of international law as may be applicable.

ARTICLE 17
Awards and Enforcement

- (1) Arbitration awards shall be final and binding upon the parties to the dispute.
- (2) Each Contracting Party shall make provision for the effective enforcement of awards made pursuant to this Article and shall carry out without delay any such award issued in a proceeding to which it is party.

PART TWO: Settlement of Disputes between the Contracting Parties

ARTICLE 18
Scope, Consultations, Mediation and Conciliation

Disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall, as far as possible, be settled amicably or through consultations, mediation or conciliation.

ARTICLE 19Initiation of Proceedings

- (1) At the request of either Contracting Party a dispute concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement may be submitted to an arbitral tribunal for decision not earlier than 60 days after such request has been notified to the other Contracting Party.
- (2) A Contracting Party may not initiate proceedings under this Part for a dispute regarding the infringement of rights of an investor which that investor has submitted to arbitration under Part One of Chapter Two of this Agreement, unless the other Contracting Party has failed to abide by and comply with the award rendered in that dispute or those proceedings have terminated without resolution by an arbitral tribunal of the investor's claim.

ARTICLE 20Formation of the Tribunal

- (1) The arbitral tribunal shall be constituted ad hoc as follows:

Each Contracting Party shall appoint one member and these two members shall agree upon a national of a third state as their chairman. Such members shall be appointed within two (2) months from the date one Contracting Party has informed the other Contracting Party of its intention to submit the dispute to an arbitral tribunal, the chairman of which shall be appointed within two (2) further months.

- (2) If the periods specified in paragraph (1) of this Article are not observed, either Contracting Party may, in the absence of any relevant arrangement, invite the President of the International Court of Justice to make the necessary appointments. If the President of the International Court of Justice is a national of either of the Contracting Parties or if he/she is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the Vice-President or in case of his/her inability the member of the International Court of Justice next in seniority should be invited under the same conditions to make the necessary appointments.

- (3) Members of an arbitral tribunal shall be independent and impartial.

ARTICLE 21

Applicable Law, Default Rules

- (1) The arbitral tribunal will decide disputes in accordance with this Agreement and the applicable rules and principles of international law.
- (2) Unless the parties to the dispute decide otherwise, the Permanent Court of Arbitration Optional Rules for Arbitrating Disputes shall apply to matters not governed by other provisions of this Part.

ARTICLE 22

Awards

- (1) The tribunal, in its award, shall set out its findings of law and fact, together with the reasons therefore, and may, at the request of a Contracting Party, award the following forms of relief:
- (a) a declaration that an action of a Contracting Party is in contravention of its obligations under this Agreement;
 - (b) a recommendation that a Contracting Party brings its actions into conformity with its obligations under this Agreement;
 - (c) pecuniary compensation for any loss or damage to the requesting Contracting Party's investor or its investment; or
 - (d) any other form of relief to which the Contracting Party against whom the award is made consents, including restitution in kind to an investor.
- (2) The arbitration award shall be final and binding upon the parties to the dispute.

ARTICLE 23

Costs

Each Contracting Party shall pay the cost of its representation in the proceedings. The cost of the tribunal shall be paid for equally by the Contracting Parties unless the tribunal directs that they be shared differently.

ARTICLE 24

Enforcement

Pecuniary awards which have not been complied with within one year from the date of the award may be enforced in the courts of either Contracting Party with jurisdiction over assets of the defaulting Party.

CHAPTER THREE: FINAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 25

Application of the Agreement

- (1) This Agreement shall apply to investments made in the territory of either Contracting Party in accordance with its legislation by investors of the other Contracting Party prior as well as after the entry into force of this Agreement.
- (2) This Agreement shall not apply to claims which have been settled or procedures which have been initiated prior to its entry into force.

ARTICLE 26

Consultations

Each Contracting Party may propose to the other Contracting Party consultations on any matter relating to this Agreement. These consultations shall be held at a place and at a time agreed upon through diplomatic channels.

ARTICLE 27

Entry into Force and Duration

- (1) This Agreement is subject to ratification and shall enter into force on the first day of the third month that follows the month during which the instruments of ratification have been exchanged.
- (2) This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of ten years and shall be automatically renewed thereafter for further periods of ten years, unless one of the Contracting Parties notifies the other in writing about its intention to the contrary, at least one year prior to the expiration of the period of ten years in question.
- (3) In respect of investments made prior to the end of the validity of the present Agreement the provisions of Articles 1 to 25 of the present Agreement shall continue to be effective for a further period of ten years from the end of the validity of the present Agreement.

ARTICLE 28

Termination

After the end of the first period of ten years referred to in Article 27 (2) either Contracting Party may terminate the present Agreement by giving notice at least six months before the end of each calendar year. Such termination shall take effect at the end of the calendar year in question.
