AGREEMENT

between the Government of the Republic of Austria and the Government of the Republic of Azerbaijan for the Promotion and Protection of Investments

DESIRING to create favourable conditions for greater economic co-operation between the Contracting Parties,

RECOGNIZING that the promotion and protection of investments may strengthen the readiness for such investments and hereby make an important contribution to the development of economic relations,

REAFFIRMING their commitment to the observance of internationally recognized labour standards,

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

CHAPTER ONE: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1

Definitions

For the purpose of this Agreement
(1) “investor of a Contracting Party” means:
   (a) a natural person having the nationality of a Contracting Party in accordance with its applicable law; or
   (b) an enterprise constituted or organised under the applicable law of a Contracting Party; making or having made an investment in the other Contracting Party’s territory.

(2) “investment by an investor of a Contracting Party” means every kind of asset in the territory of one Contracting Party, owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by an investor of the other Contracting Party, including:
   (a) an enterprise constituted or organised under the applicable law of the first Contracting Party;
   (b) shares, stocks and other forms of equity participation in an enterprise as referred to in subparagraph (a), and rights derived therefrom;
   (c) bonds, debentures, loans and other forms of debt and rights derived therefrom;
   (d) rights under contracts, including turnkey, construction, management, production or revenue-sharing contracts;
   (e) claims to money and claims to performance pursuant to a contract having an economic value;
   (f) intellectual and industrial property rights as defined in the multilateral agreements concluded under the auspices of the World Intellectual Property Organisation, including copyright, trademarks, patents, industrial designs and technical processes, know-how, trade secrets, trade names and goodwill;
   (g) rights conferred by law or contract such as concessions, licenses, authorisations or permits to undertake an economic activity;
   (h) any other tangible or intangible, movable or immovable property, or any related property rights, such as leases, mortgages, liens, pledges or usufructs.

(3) “Enterprise” means a legal person or any entity constituted or organised under the applicable law of a Contracting Party, whether or not for profit, and whether private or government owned or controlled, including a corporation, trust, partnership, sole proprietorship, branch, joint venture, association or organisation.

(4) “Returns” means the amounts yielded by an investment and, in particular, profits, interests, capital gains, dividends, royalties, license fees and other fees.

(5) “Without delay” means such period as is normally required for the completion of necessary formalities for the payments of compensation or for the transfer of payments. This period shall commence for payments of compensation on the day of expropriation and for transfers of payments on the day on which the request for transfer has been submitted. It shall in no case exceed one month.

(6) "territory" means
(a) with respect to the Republic of Austria, the land territory, internal waters and airspace under its sovereignty where the Republic of Austria exercises, in conformity with international law, sovereign rights and jurisdiction;
(b) with respect to the Republic of Azerbaijan, the territory of the Republic of Azerbaijan, including the respective Caspian Sea sector over which the Republic of Azerbaijan exercises, in accordance with its national law and international law, sovereign rights or jurisdiction.

Article 2

Promotion and Admission of Investments

(1) Each Contracting Party shall, according to its laws and regulations, promote and admit investments by investors of the other Contracting Party.

(2) Any alteration of the form in which assets are invested or reinvested shall not affect their character as an investment provided that such alteration is in accordance with the laws and regulations of the Contracting Party in whose territory the investment has been made.

Article 3

Treatment of Investments

(1) Each Contracting Party shall accord to investments by investors of the other Contracting Party fair and equitable treatment and full and constant protection and security.

(2) A Contracting Party shall not impair by unreasonable or discriminatory measures the management, operation, maintenance, use, enjoyment, sale and liquidation of an investment by investors of the other Contracting Party.

(3) Each Contracting Party shall accord to investors of the other Contracting Party and to their investments treatment no less favourable than that it accords to its own investors and their investments or to investors of any third country and their investments with respect to the management, operation, maintenance, use, enjoyment, sale and liquidation of an investment, whichever is more favourable to the investor.

(4) No provision of this Agreement shall be construed as to oblige a Contracting Party to extend to the investors of the other Contracting Party and to their investments the present or future benefit of any treatment, preference or privilege resulting from
(a) any membership in a free trade area, customs union, common market, economic community or any multilateral agreement on investment;
(b) any international agreement, international arrangement or domestic legislation regarding taxation.

Article 4

Transparency

(1) Each Contracting Party shall promptly publish, or otherwise make publicly available, its laws, regulations, procedures as well as international agreements which may affect the operation of the Agreement.

(2) Each Contracting Party shall promptly respond to specific questions and provide, upon request, information to the other Contracting Party on matters referred to in paragraph (1).

(3) No Contracting Party shall be required to furnish or allow access to information concerning particular investors or investments the disclosure of which would impede law enforcement or would be contrary to its laws and regulations protecting confidentiality.

Article 5

Expropriation and Compensation

(1) A Contracting Party shall not expropriate or nationalise directly or indirectly an investment of an investor of the other Contracting Party or take any measures having equivalent effect (hereinafter referred to as expropriation) except:
(a) for a purpose which is in the public interest,
(b) on a non-discriminatory basis,
(c) in accordance with due process of law, and
(d) accompanied by payment of prompt, adequate and effective compensation in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3) below.

(2) Compensation shall:
(a) be paid without delay. In case of delay any exchange rate loss arising from this delay shall be borne by the host country.
(b) be equivalent to the fair market value of the expropriated investment immediately before the expropriation occurred. The fair market value shall not reflect any change in value occurring because the expropriation had become publicly known earlier.
(c) be paid and made freely transferable to the foreign bank account designated by the claimants concerned and in the currency of the country of which the claimants are nationals or in any freely convertible currency agreed upon by the claimants and the host Contracting Party.
(d) include interest at a commercial rate established on a market basis for the currency of payment from the date of expropriation until the date of actual payment.

(3) Due process of law includes the right of an investor of a Contracting Party which claims to be affected by expropriation by the other Contracting Party to prompt review of its case, including the valuation of its investment and the payment of compensation in accordance with the provisions of this Article, by a judicial authority or another competent and independent authority of the latter Contracting Party.

Article 6

Compensation for Losses

(1) An investor of a Contracting Party who has suffered a loss relating to his/her investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party due to war or to other armed conflict, revolution, insurrection, civil disturbance, state of emergency, or any other similar event, in the territory of the latter Contracting Party, shall be accorded by the latter Contracting Party, as regards restitution, indemnification, compensation or any other settlement, treatment no less favourable than that which it accords to its own investors or to investors of any third state, whichever is more favourable to the investor.

(2) An investor of a Contracting Party who in any of the events referred to in paragraph (1) suffers loss resulting from:
(a) requisitioning of his/her investment or part thereof by the forces or authorities of the other Contracting Party, or
(b) destruction of his/her investment or part thereof by the forces or authorities of the other Contracting Party, which was not required by the necessity of the situation, shall in any case be accorded by the latter Contracting Party restitution or compensation which in either case shall be prompt, adequate and effective and, with respect to compensation, shall be in accordance with Article 5 paragraph (2) and (3).

Article 7

Transfers

(1) Each Contracting Party shall guarantee that all payments relating to an investment by an investor of the other Contracting Party may be freely transferred into and out of its territory without delay. Such transfers shall include, in particular:
(a) the initial capital and additional amounts to maintain or increase an investment;
(b) returns;
(c) payments made under a contract including a loan agreement;
(d) proceeds from the sale or liquidation of all or any part of an investment;
(e) payments of compensation under Articles 5 and 6;
(f) payments arising out of the settlement of a dispute;
(g) earnings and other remuneration of personnel engaged from abroad in connection with an investment.

(2) Each Contracting Party shall further guarantee that such transfers may be made in a freely convertible currency at the market rate of exchange prevailing on the date of transfer in the territory of the Contracting Party from which the transfer is made. The bank charges shall be fair and equitable.

(3) In the absence of a market for foreign exchange, the rate to be used shall be the most recent exchange rate for conversion of currencies into Special Drawing Rights.

(4) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) (b) a Contracting Party may restrict the transfer of a return in kind in circumstances where the Contracting Party is permitted under the GATT 1994 to restrict or prohibit the exportation or the sale for export of the product constituting the return in kind. Nevertheless, a Contracting Party shall ensure that transfers of returns in kind may be effected as authorised or specified in an investment agreement, investment authorisation, or other written agreement between the Contracting Party and an investor or investment of the other Contracting Party.

(5) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1) to (4), a Contracting Party may prevent a transfer through the equitable, non-discriminatory and good faith application of measures to protect the rights of creditors, or relating to or ensuring compliance with laws and regulations on the requirements for transfers, or in connection with criminal offences including those on tax issues and orders or judgements in administrative and adjudicatory proceedings, provided that such measures and their application shall not be used as a means of avoiding the Contracting Party's commitments or obligations under this Agreement.

Article 8

Subrogation

If a Contracting Party or its designated agency makes a payment under an indemnity, guarantee or contract of insurance given in respect of an investment by an investor in the territory of the other Contracting Party, the latter Contracting Party shall recognize without prejudice to the rights of the investor under Chapter Two Part One the assignment of any right or claim of such investor to the former Contracting Party or its designated agency and the right of the former Contracting Party or its designated agency to exercise by virtue of subrogation any such right and claim to the same extent as its predecessor in title.

Article 9

Other Obligations

Each Contracting Party shall observe any obligation it may have entered into with regard to specific investments by investors of the other Contracting Party.

Article 10

Denial of Benefits

A Contracting Party may deny the benefits of this Agreement to an investor of the other Contracting Party and to its investments, if investors of a Non-Contracting Party own or control the first mentioned investor and that investor has no substantial business activity in the territory of the Contracting Party under whose law it is constituted or organized.

CHAPTER TWO: DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

PART ONE: Settlement of Disputes between an Investor and a Contracting Party

Article 11

Scope and Standing

This Part applies to disputes between a Contracting Party and an investor of the other Contracting Party concerning an alleged breach of an obligation of the former under this Agreement which causes loss or damage to the investor or its investment.

Article 12

Means of Settlement, Time Periods

(1) A dispute between a Contracting Party and an investor of the other Contracting Party, shall, if possible, be settled by negotiation or consultation. If it is not so settled, the investor may choose to submit it for resolution:

(a) to the competent courts or administrative tribunals of the Contracting Party, party to the dispute;
(b) in accordance with any applicable previously agreed dispute settlement procedure, or
(c) in accordance with this Article to:

(i) the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (“the Centre”), established pursuant to the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of other States, opened for signature at Washington on 18 March 1965, (“the ICSID Convention”), if the Contracting Party of the investor and the Contracting Party, party to the dispute are both parties to the ICSID Convention;
(ii) the Centre under the rules governing the Additional Facility for the Administration of Proceedings by the Secretariat of the Centre, if the Contracting Party of the investor or the Contracting Party party to the dispute, but not both, is a party to the ICSID Convention;

(iii) an ad hoc arbitration tribunal established under the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (“UNCITRAL”);

(iv) the International Chamber of Commerce in Paris, by an ad hoc tribunal under its rules of arbitration.

(2) A dispute may be submitted for resolution pursuant to paragraph 1 (c) of this Article sixty (60) days after notice of the intent to do so was provided to the Contracting Party, party to the dispute, but not later than five years from the date the investor first acquired or should have acquired knowledge of the events which gave rise to the dispute.

Article 13

Contracting Party Consent

(1) Each Contracting Party hereby gives its unconditional consent to the submission of a dispute to international arbitration in accordance with this Part. However, a dispute may not be submitted to international arbitration if a local court in either Contracting Party has rendered its decision on the dispute.

(2) The consent referred to in paragraph (1) implies the renunciation of the requirement that the internal administrative or juridical remedies should be exhausted.

Article 14

Indemnification

A Contracting Party shall not assert as a defence, counter-claim, right of set-off or for any other reason, that indemnification or other compensation for all or part of the alleged damages has been received or will be received pursuant to an indemnity, guarantee or insurance contract.

Article 15

Applicable Law

(1) A tribunal established under this Part shall decide the dispute in accordance with this Agreement and applicable rules and principles of international law.

(2) Issues in dispute under Article 9 shall be decided, absent other agreement, in accordance with the law of the Contracting Party, party to the dispute, the law governing the authorization or agreement and such rules of international law as may be applicable.

Article 16

Awards and Enforcement

(1) Arbitration awards, which may include an award of interest, shall be final and binding upon the parties to the dispute and may provide the following forms of relief:

(a) a declaration that the Contracting Party has failed to comply with its obligations under this Agreement;

(b) pecuniary compensation, which shall include interest from the time the loss or damage was incurred until the time of payment;

(c) restitution in kind in appropriate cases, provided that the Contracting Party may pay pecuniary compensation in lieu thereof where restitution is not practicable; and

(d) with the agreement of the parties to the dispute, any other form of relief.

(2) Each Contracting Party shall make provision for the effective enforcement of awards made pursuant to this Article and shall carry out without delay any such award issued in a proceeding to which it is a party.

PART TWO: Settlement of Disputes between the Contracting Parties

Article 17

Scope, Consultations, Mediation and Conciliation

Disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall, as far as possible, be settled amicably or through consultations, mediation or conciliation.
Article 18

Initiation of Proceedings

(1) At the request of either Contracting Party a dispute concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement may be submitted to an arbitral tribunal for decision not earlier than 60 days after such request has been notified to the other Contracting Party.

(2) A Contracting Party may not initiate proceedings under this Part for a dispute regarding the infringement of rights of an investor which that investor has submitted to arbitration under Part One of Chapter Two of this Agreement, unless the other Contracting Party has failed to abide by and comply with the award rendered in that dispute.

Article 19

Formation of the Tribunal, Applicable Law and Rules of Procedure

(1) The arbitral tribunal shall be constituted ad hoc as follows: Within two months of the receipt of the request for arbitration, each Contracting Party shall appoint one member of the Tribunal. Those two members shall then select a national of a third State who on approval by the two Contracting Parties shall be appointed Chairman of the Tribunal. The Chairman shall be appointed within four months from the date of appointment of the other two members.

(2) If within the period specified in paragraph (1) of this Article the necessary appointments have not been made, either Contracting Party may, in the absence of any other agreement, invite the President of the International Court of Justice to make the necessary appointments. If the President is a national of either Contracting Party or is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the member of the International Court of Justice next in seniority who is not a national of either Contracting Party or is not otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, shall be invited to make the necessary appointments.

(3) Members of an arbitral tribunal shall be independent and impartial.

(4) The arbitral tribunal will decide disputes in accordance with this Agreement and the applicable rules and principles of international law. It shall reach its decision by a majority of votes and furthermore determine its own procedure.

Article 20

Awards

(1) The tribunal, in its award, shall set out its findings of law and fact, together with the reasons therefore, and may, at the request of a Contracting Party, award the following forms of relief:
   (a) a declaration that an action of a Contracting Party is in contravention of its obligations under this Agreement;
   (b) a recommendation that a Contracting Party brings its actions into conformity with its obligations under this Agreement;
   (c) pecuniary compensation for any loss or damage to the requesting Contracting Party's investor or its investment; or
   (d) with the consent of the Contracting Party against whom the award is made, any other form of relief, including restitution in kind to an investor.

(2) The arbitration award shall be final and binding upon the parties to the dispute.

Article 21

Costs

Each Contracting Party shall pay the cost of its own member in the Tribunal and of its representation in the proceedings. The cost of the Chairman and the remaining costs of the Tribunal shall be paid for equally by the Contracting Parties unless the tribunal decides differently.

Article 22

Enforcement

Each Contracting Party shall enforce pecuniary obligations imposed by an arbitration award in accordance with the ICSID Convention.
CHAPTER THREE: FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 23

Application of the Agreement

(1) This Agreement shall apply to investments made in the territory of either Contracting Party in accordance with its legislation by investors of the other Contracting Party prior as well as after the entry into force of this Agreement.

(2) This Agreement shall not apply to disputes which arose before 2 March 1992, claims which have been settled or procedures which have been initiated prior to its entry into force.

Article 24

Consultations

Each Contracting Party may propose to the other Contracting Party consultations on any matter relating to this Agreement. These consultations shall be held at a place and at a time agreed upon through diplomatic channels.

Article 25

Entry into Force and Duration

(1) The Contracting Parties shall notify each other when the conditions required by the national legislation for its entry into force have been fulfilled. The Agreement shall enter into force sixty (60) days after the date of receipt of the latter notification.

(2) This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of ten years; it shall be extended thereafter for an indefinite period and may be denounced in writing through diplomatic channels by either Contracting Party giving twelve months’ notice.

(3) In respect of investments made prior to the date of termination of the present Agreement the provisions of Articles 1 to 24 of the present Agreement shall continue to be effective for a further period of ten years from the date of termination of the present Agreement.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, the undersigned representatives, duly authorized thereto, have signed the present Agreement.
