4. "Territory" means the territory of the Lao People's Democratic Republic and the territory of the Republic of Cuba, as well as the maritime areas, including the sea bed and subsoil adjacent to the outer limits of the territorial waters of either territory, over which the State in question exercises, in conformity with international law, sovereign rights or jurisdiction.

Article 2. Promotion and Protection of Investments

1. Each Contracting Party shall promote and create favorable conditions, in conformity with its laws and regulations, in its territory for investments by investors of the other Contracting Party, and shall admit such investments in accordance with its legislation.

2. Investments by investors of a Contracting Party shall, at all times, be accorded fair and equitable treatment and shall enjoy full protection and security in the territory of the other Contracting Party.

3. Each Contracting Party shall create favorable conditions for the granting of visa and work permits required in its territory in order that the nationals of the other Contracting Party can perform their activities connected to the investment.

Article 3. National and Most-favored Nation Treatment

1. Each Contracting Party shall accord, in its territory, to investments and returns of investors of the other Contracting Party, treatment no less favorable than that which it accords to investments and returns of its own investors or to investments and returns of investors of any third State.

2. Each Contracting Party shall accord to investors of the other Contracting Party, in regard to the management, maintenance, use, enjoyment or disposal, in its territory, of investments a fair and equitable treatment which is no less favorable than that which it accords to its own investors or to investors of any third State.

Article 5. Expropriation

Such compensation shall amount to the market value of the investment expropriated immediately before the expropriation was made or became public knowledge, and shall include interests from the date of expropriation until payment is made effective. It shall be realizable, freely transferable and made effective without delay in freely convertible currency.

1. If either Contracting Party or its designated agency makes a payment to one of its investors under any financial guarantee against non-commercial risks it has granted in regard of an investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party, the latter shall recognize:

- a) The assignment of any right or claim of that investor, under law or legal transaction, to the first Contracting Party or its designated agency, as well as,

Such Rules can be modified by written agreement of the Parties to the dispute. The awards of the Arbitration Tribunal shall be final and binding on both parties to the dispute.

Article 9. Settlement of Disputes between the Contracting Parties

1. Any dispute between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall, if possible, be settled by consultations and negotiations.

3. The Arbitration Tribunal shall be constituted, for each individual case, as follows: each Contracting Party shall appoint, within two months from the date of the request for arbitration, one arbitrator, and these two arbitrators shall agree upon a national of a third State as Chairman of the Tribunal (hereinafter referred to as the "Chairman"). The Chairman shall be appointed within three months from the date of the appointment of the two arbitrators.

4. If within the periods specified in paragraph 3) of this Article the necessary appointments have not been made, either Contracting Party may invite the President of the International Court of Justice to make the necessary appointments. If the President of the Court is a national of either Contracting Party or if he is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the Vice-President of the Court will be invited to make the appointments. If he too is a national of either Contracting Party or is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the member of the Court next in seniority, who is not a national of either Contracting Party, shall be invited to make the necessary appointments.

5. The Tribunal shall reach its decision by a majority of votes. Such decision shall be final and binding on the Contracting Parties. Each Contracting Party shall bear the cost of its own arbitrator and of its representation. The cost of the Chairman, as well as the other costs will be borne in equal parts by the Contracting Parties. The Tribunal shall determine its own procedure.

Article 10. Application of other Rules and Special Commitments

1. Where a matter is regulated simultaneously by this Agreement and any other International Agreement of which both Contracting Parties are members, the most favourable shall apply in regard to both Contracting Parties and their investors who own investments in the territory of the other Contracting Party.

2. If the legislation of either Contracting Party entitles the investments by investors of the other Contracting Party to a treatment more favourable than is provided for by this Agreement such legislation shall, to the extent that it is more favourable, prevail over this Agreement.

Article 11. Application of this Agreement

This Agreement shall apply to investments made prior to and after its entry into force by investors of either Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party, consistent with the latter's legislation. It shall not apply, however, to investment disputes arising out before its entry into force.

Article 12. Entry into Force, Duration and Termination

1. This Agreement is subject to approval in conformity with the internal constitutional requirements of each Contracting Party. It shall enter into force as from the last date on which the Contracting Parties have exchanged written notifications informing each other that the procedures required by their respective laws to this end have been completed.

2. This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of ten years. Unless notice of termination has been given by either Contracting Party at least one year before the date of expiry of its validity, this Agreement shall thereafter be extended tacitly for periods of ten years.

3. In respect of investments made prior to the date of termination of this Agreement, the foregoing provisions shall continue to be effective for further period of ten years from that date.
