with such investments and with the carrying out of licensing agreements and contracts for technical, commercial or administrative assistance.

ARTICLE 6
Transfers of investments and Returns

2. Transfers shall be done in accordance with legislation pertaining thereto. Such legislation shall not, regarding either the requirements or the application thereof, impair or derogate from the free, unrestricted and undelayed transfer guaranteed in this agreement.
ARTICLE 7
Subrogation

If a Contracting Party or its designated Agency makes a payment to its own investor under a guarantee against non-commercial risk it has given in respect of an investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party, the latter Contracting Party shall recognize the assignment, whether by law or by legal transaction, to the former Contracting Party of all the rights and claims of the indemnified investor, and shall recognize that the former Contracting Party or its designated Agency is entitled to exercise such rights and enforce such claims by virtue of subrogation, to the same extent as the original investor.

1. Any legal dispute between an investor of one Contracting Party and the other Contracting Party relating to an investment of the former which have not been amicably settled shall, after a period of six months from written notification of a claim, be submitted to international arbitration if the investor concerned so wishes.

2. Where the dispute is referred to international arbitration, the investor and the Contracting Party concerned in the dispute may agree to refer the dispute either to:

(a) The Court of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce; or,

(b) an international arbitrator or ad hoc arbitration tribunal to be appointed by a special agreement or established under the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law.
If, after a period of three months from written notification of the investor's decision to submit the dispute to international arbitration, there is no agreement on one of the above alternative procedures, the dispute shall, at the request in writing of the investor concerned, be submitted to the procedure preferred by the investor.

3. The award shall be binding on the parties to the dispute. Each Contracting Party undertakes to execute the awards according to its national law.

ARTICLE 9
Settlement of Disputes between the Contracting Parties

1. Disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation and application of this Agreement shall, if possible, be settled amicably through diplomatic channels.

2. If a dispute cannot be thus settled within a period of three months after written notification by either Contracting Party to the other Contracting Party, such a dispute shall, upon request of either Contracting Party, be submitted to an ad hoc Arbitral Tribunal, in accordance with the provisions under this Article.

3. Such Arbitral Tribunal shall be constituted in the following way. Within two months from the receipt of the request for arbitration, each Contracting Party shall appoint one member of the Tribunal. Those two members shall then select a national of a Third State to be appointed as Chairman of the Tribunal. The Chairman shall be appointed within three months after the date of appointment of the other two members.
4. If within the periods specified in paragraph (3) of this Article the necessary appointments have not been made, either Contracting Party may, in absence of any other agreement, invite the President of the International Court of Justice to make the necessary appointments. If the President is a national of either Contracting Party or if he is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the Vice-President of the Court shall be invited to make the necessary appointments. If the Vice-President is a national of either Contracting Party or if he too is prevented from discharging the said function, the member of the International Court of Justice next in seniority who is not a national of either Contracting Party shall be invited to make the necessary appointments.

5. The Arbitral Tribunal shall reach its decision by a majority of votes. Such decision shall be binding on both Contracting Parties. Each Contracting Party shall bear the costs of its own member of the tribunal and of its representation in the arbitral proceedings. The cost of the Chairman and the remaining costs shall be borne in equal parts by the Contracting Parties. The Tribunal shall determine its own procedure.

ARTICLE 10
Application of other Rules

1. If the provisions of the law of either Contracting Party or obligations under international law existing at present or established hereafter between the Contracting Parties, in addition to the present Agreement, contain rules, whether general or specific, entitling investments and returns of investors of the other Contracting Party to treatment more favourable than is provided for by the present Agreement, such rules shall, to the extent that they are more favourable, prevail over the present Agreement.
2. Each Contracting Party shall observe any obligation it may have entered into with regard to investments of investors of the other Contracting Party.

ARTICLE 11
Scope of the Agreement

This Agreement shall apply to all investments, whether made before or after the date of entry into force of this Agreement, but shall not apply to any dispute which arose before entry into force of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 12
Final Clauses

1. This Agreement shall be ratified and shall enter into force on the exchange of Instruments of Ratification.

2. This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of twenty (20) years. Thereafter it shall continue in force until the expiration of twelve months from the date on which either Contracting Party shall have given written notice of termination to the other.

3. In respect of investments made prior to the date when the notice of termination becomes effective, the provisions of articles 1 to 11 shall remain in force with respect to such investments for a further period of twenty (20) years from that date.
In witness whereof the undersigned, duly authorised thereto, have signed this Agreement.
