Recognizing the importance of providing adequate and effective protection and enforcement of intellectual property rights and of membership in and adherence to intellectual property rights conventions by the United States and the Member States of ECOWAS;

Recognizing the importance to the United States and the Member States of ECOWAS of respecting, promoting and realizing in their respective laws and practices the fundamental labor rights as enumerated in the ILO Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work and its Follow-Up (1998); and of ensuring the effective enforcement of their respective labor laws;

Recognizing the importance to the United States and the Member States of ECOWAS of protecting and preserving the environment in accordance with their respective environmental laws, and of ensuring the effective enforcement of their respective environmental laws; and desiring to ensure that trade and environmental policies are mutually supportive in the furtherance of sustainable development;

Desiring to promote business relations by encouraging and facilitating contacts between enterprises and other private sector groups in the United States and those in the Member States of ECOWAS;

Acknowledging the desirability of resolving trade and investment problems between the Parties as expeditiously as possible;

Recognizing the importance of the multilateral trading system, and desiring to reinforce that system;

Seeking to create a mechanism for further dialogue on initiatives for expanding trade and investment between the Parties and among the ECOWAS Member States through enhanced cooperation and more comprehensive agreements,

The Council shall take up the matter promptly after the request is delivered unless the requesting Party agrees to postpone discussion of the matter. Each Party shall endeavor to provide an opportunity for the Council to consider a matter before taking actions that could adversely affect trade or investment interests of the other Party.
