A. Letter from the European Community

Sir,

The Interim Agreement on trade and trade-related matters between the European Community, the European Coal and Steel Community and the European Atomic Energy Community, of the one part, and Turkmenistan, of the other part, was signed on 10 November 1999.

Article 31 of the Interim Agreement designates the Danish, Dutch, English, Finnish, French, German, Greek, Italian, Portuguese, Spanish, Swedish and Turkmen language versions as authentic versions of this agreement.

Following the increase in the number of official languages of the institutions of the European Community, in particular following the accession of 12 new Member States to the European Union since the signature of the Interim Agreement, it is necessary that the Bulgarian, Czech, Estonian, Hungarian, Latvian, Lithuanian, Maltese, Polish, Romanian, Slovak and Slovene language versions of the Interim Agreement are also designated as authentic versions of the Interim Agreement and that Article 31 of the Interim Agreement is amended accordingly.

You will find these additional language versions attached to the present letter.

I would be grateful if you could express Turkmenistan's acceptance of the attached language versions as authentic language versions of the Interim Agreement and Turkmenistan's agreement to the corresponding amendment of Article 31 of the Interim Agreement.

This Instrument will enter into force on the date of its signature.

Please accept, Sir, the assurance of my highest consideration.
