AGREEMENT

EETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE ITALIAN REPUBLIC AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF KENYA ON THE PROMOTION AND PROTECTION OF INVESTMENTE

The Government of the Italian Republic and the Government of the Republic of Kenya (hereafter referred to as tha Contracting Parties),

Desiring to establish favourable conditions for improved economic cooperation between the two Countries, and especially in relation to capital investments by investors of ona Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party;

and

acknowledging that offering encouragement and mutual protection to such investments, based on an international Agreement, will contribute to stimulate business ventures, which foster the prosperity of both Contracting Parties,

Hareby agrae as follows:

Article 1 - Definitions

For the purposes of this Agreement:

Tha term "investment" shall be construed to mean any kind of property invested, bafore or after the entry into force of this Agreement, by a natural or legal person of a Contracting Party, in conformity with the laws and regulations of that Party, irrespective of the legal form chosen, as wall as of the legal framework. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the term "investment" comprises in particular, but not exclusively:

- a) movable and immovabla property and any ownarship right in rem. including real guarantee rights on property of a Third Party, to the axtent that it can be invested;
- b) shares, debantures, eguity holdings or any other inatrumants of credit, as well as Government and public securities in general;
- c) credits for sums of money or any service right having an economic value connected with an investment, as well as re-invested income and capital gains;
- d) copyright, commercial trade marks, patents, industrial designs and other intellectual and industrial property rights, Know-how, trade secrets, trade names and goodwill;
- e) any economic right accruing by law or by contract and any licence and franchise granted in accordance with the provisions in force on economic activities, including the right to prospect for, extract and exploit natural resourcas;
- f) any increase in value of the original investment.

Any modification in the form of the investment does not imply a change in the nature theraof.

- 2. The term "investor" shall be construed to mean any natural or legal person of a Contracting Party investing in the territory of the other Contracting Party as well as the foreign subsidiaries, affiliates and branches controlled in anyway by the above natural and legal persons.
- 3. The term "natural person", in reference to either Contracting Party, shall be construed to mean any natural person holding the nationality of that State in accordance with its laws.
- 4. The term "legal person", in reference to either Contracting Party, ahall be construed to mean any entity having its head office in the territory of one of the Contracting Parties and recognised by it, such as public institutions, corporations, partnerships, foundations and associations, regardless of whether their liability is limited or otherwise.
- 5. The term "income" shall be construed to mean the money accruing to an investment, including in particular profits or interests, interest income, capital gains, dividends, royalties and any other form of payment either in money or in kind.

- 6. The term "territory" shall be construed to mean, in addition to the zones contained within the land boundaries, the "maritime zonas". The latter also comprise the marine and submarine zones over which the Contracting Parties axercise sovereignty, and sovereign or jurisdictional rights, under international law.
- 7. "Investment agraement" means an agreement between a Party (or its agencies or instrumentalities) and an inveator of the other Party concerning an investment.
- 8. "Nondiacriminatory treatment" means treatment that is at least as favourable as the national treatment or most-favoured-nation treatment.

Article 2 - Promotion and Protection of Investments

- Both Contracting Parties shall encourage investora of the other Contracting Party to invest in their territory.
- 2. Investors of one of the Contracting Parties shall have the right of access to the investment activities, in the territory of the other Contracting Party, not less favourable than the one granted as per Article 3.1.
- 3. Both Contracting Parties shall at all times ensure just and fair treatment of the investmanta of investora of the other Contracting Party. Both Contracting Parties shall ensure that the management, maintenance, use, transformation, enjoyment or assignment of the investments effected in their territory by investors of the other Contracting Party, as well as companies and enterprises in which these investments have been affected, shall in no way be subject to unjustified or discriminatory measures.
- 4. Each Contracting Party shall create and maintain, in ita territory a legal framework apt to assure to investors the continuity of legal treatment, including the compliance, in good faith, of all undertakings assumed with regard to each specific investor.

Article 3 - National Traatment and the Moat favoured Nation Clause

- Both Contracting Parties, within the boundaries of their own territory, shall offer inveatments effected by, and the income accruing to, investors of the other Contracting Party no less favourable treatment than that accorded to investments effected by, and income accruing to, its own nationals or invastors of Third Statea.
- 2. If provisions in the legislation of a Contracting Party, or in international agreements in force or which may come into forca in the future for that Contracting Party, should accord to investors of the other Contracting Party more favourable treatment than foreeeen in this Agreement, euch provisions ehall, to the extent that they are more favourable to the investor concerned, prevail over this Agreement. This principle shall also apply to existing investments.

3. The provisions under point 1 and 2 of this Article do not refer to the advantages and privileges which one Contracting Party may grant to investors of Third States by virtue of their membership of a Customs or Economic Union, of a Common Market, of a Free Trade Area, of a multilateral economic Agreement or under agreements signed in order to prevent double taxation or to facilitate cross border trade.

Article 4 - Compensation for Damages or Losses

When investments by invectors of either Contracting Party suffer damages or loeses owing to war, armed conflict, a state of national emergency, revolt, insurrection, riot or other similar events in the territory of the other Contracting Party, they shall be accorded by the latter Contracting Party a treatment, as regards compensation or other settlement, not less favourable than that accorded to its own investors or to investore of any Third Stata.

Article 5 - Nationalization or Expropriation

- 1. The investments to which this Agreement relates shall not be subject to any measure which might limit the right of ownership, possession, control or enjoyment of tha investments, permanently or temporarily, save where specifically provided by current, national or local, legislation or regulations and orders handed down by Courts or Tribunals having jurisdiction.
- 2. Investments of investors of one of the Contracting Parties ehall not be, "de jure" or "de facto", directly or indirectly nationalized, axpropriatad, raquisitioned or subjected to any measures having an equivalent affact in the territory of the other Contracting Party, except for public purposes or national interest and in exchange for immediate, full and effective compensation, and on condition that these measures are taken on a non-diecriminatory basis and in conformity with all legal provisions and proceduree.
- 3. The just compensation shall be established on the basis of real market value immediately prior to the moment in which the decision to nationalize or expropriate is announced or made public. In the absence of an underetanding between the host Contracting Party and the investor during the nationalization or expropriation procedure, compensation shall be based on the same reference parameters and exchange rates taken into account in the documents for the constitution of the investment.

The exchange rate applicable to any such compensation shall be that prevailing on the date immediately prior to the moment in which the nationalization or expropriation has been annonced or made public.

- 4. Without reatricting the scope of the above paragreph, ahould the object of netionelization, expropriation, or aimiler event be a company any part of whose share capital shall have been subscribed by an investor in e foreign currency or denominated in a foreign currency, the evaluation of the share of auch investor will be in the currency of the investment, increased by capital increases, revaluation of capital, undistributed profits and recerves and diminished by the value of capital reductions and losses.
- 5. Compensation will be considered as actuel if it will have been peid in the same currency in which the investment has been made by the foreign investor, in as much ae euch currency is or remains convertible, or, otherwise, in any other currency eccepted by the investor.
- Compensation will be considered as timely if it takes place without undue deley and, in any cese, within six months.
- 7. Compensation shall include interests calculeted on LIBOR basis from the date of nationalization or expropriation to the date of payment.
- 8. A national or company of either Party that esserts that all or pert of its investment has been expropriated ehall have a right to prompt review by the appropriate judicial or administrative authorities of the other Party to determine whether any euch expropriation, and eny compensation thereof, conforms to principles of international law, and to decide all other mattere relating thereto.
- 9. If, after the disposeession, the assets concerned have not been utilized, wholly or partially, for that purpose, the owner or his essignees are entitled to the repurchasing of the assets at the market price.

Article 6 - Repatriation of Capital, Profite and Income

- Each of the Contracting Parties shall guarantee that the investors of the other may transfer the following abroad, without undue delay, in any convertible currency:
- a) capital end additionel capital, including reinveeted income, used to maintain and increase investment;
- b) any income derived from an investment;
- c) income deriving from the total or pertial sale or the total or partial liquidation of an investment;

- d) funde to rapay loans connected to an investment and the payment of the related interests;
- e) remuneration and allowances paid to nationals of the other Contracting Party for work and eervices performed in relation to an investment effected in tha territory of the other Contracting Party in the amount and manner preecribed by the national legislation and regulations in force.
- 2. Without restricting the scope of Article 3 of this Agreament, the Contracting Parties undartake to apply to the transfers mentioned in paragraph 1. of thie Article the same favourable treatment that is accorded to investments effected by investors of Third States, in case it is more favourable.

Article 7 - Subrogation

In the event that one Contracting Party or an Institution thereof has provided a guarantee in respect of non-commercial risks for investment effected by one of its investors in the territory of the other Contracting Party, and has effected payment to said invector on the bacic of that guarantee, the other Contracting Party shall recognize the assignment of the rights of the invector to tha first-named Contracting Party. In relation to the transfer of payments to the Contracting Party or ite Institution by virtue of this assignment, tha provisions of Article 4, 5 and 6 of this Agreement chall apply.

Article 8 - Tranefer procedurea

- 1. The transfers referred to in Article 4, 5, 6 and 7 shall be effected without undue delay and, at all events, within six months after all fiecal obligations have been met and shall be made in a convertible currency. All the transfers shall be made at the prevailing exchange rate applicable on the date on which the investor applies for the related transfer, with the exception of the provisione under point 3 of Article 5 concerning the exchange rate applicable in case of nationalization or expropriation.
- The fiecal obligatione under the pravious paragraph are deemed to be complied with when the investor has fulfilled the proceedings provided for by the law of the Contracting Party on the territory of which the investment has been carried out.

Article 9 - Settlement of Disputes between Investors and Contracting Parties

I. Any dispute which may arise between one of the Contracting Parties and the investors of the other Contracting Party on investments, including disputee relating to the amount of compensation, shall be settled amicably, as far as possible.

- In case the Investor and one entity of one of the Parties have stipulated an investment agreement, the procedures foreseen in such investment agreement shall 2. apply.
- In the event that such dispute cannot be settled 3. amicably within six months of the date of the written application for settlement, the investor in guestion may submit at his choice the dispute for settlement to:
 a) the Contracting Party's Court having territorial
 - jurisdiction;
 - an "ad hoc" Arbitration Tribunal, in compliance with b) the arbitration regulation of the UN Commission on the International Trade Law (UNCITRAL); the host Contracting Party undertakes hereby to accept the reference to said arbitration;
 - the Centre for Settlement C) International Investment Disputes, for the implementation of the arbitration procedures under the Washington Convention of 18 March 1965, on the settlement of investment disputes between States and nationals of other States, if or as soon as both the Contracting Parties have acceded to it.
- Both Contracting Parties shall refrain from negotiating through diplomatic channels any matter relating to an arbitration or judicial procedures underway until these procedures have been concluded and 4. one of the Contracting Parties has failed to comply with the ruling of the Arbitration Tribunal or the Court of law within the period envisaged by the ruling, or else within the period which can be determined on the basis of the international or domestic law provisions which can be applied to the case.

Article 10 - Settlement of Disputes between the Contracting Parties

- Any dispute which may arise between the Contracting 1. Parties relating to the interpretation and application of this Agreement shall, as far as possible, be settled amicably through diplomatic channels.
 - 2. In the event that the dispute cannot be settled within six months of the date on which one of the Contracting Parties notifies, in writing, the other Contracting Party, the dispute shall, at the request of one of the Contracting Parties, be laid before an "ad hoc" Arbitration Tribunal as provided in this Article.
- The Arbitration Tribunal shall be constituted in the 3. following manner: within two months from the moment on which the reguest for arbitration is received, each of the two Contracting Parties shall appoint a member of the Tribunal. The two members shall then choose a national of a Third State to serve as a President. The President shall be appointed within three months of the date on which the other two members are appointed.

- 4. If, within the period specified in paregreph 3. of this Article, the eppointmente have not been made, each of the two Contrecting Perties can, in defeult of other arrangement, ask the Preaident of the International Court of Justice to make the appointment. In the event that the Prasidant of the Court is a national of one of tha Contracting Parties or it is, for any raaaon, impossible for him to make the appointment, the epplication shall be made to the Vice President of the Court. If the Vice Presidant of the Court is a national of one of the Contracting Parties or is unable to make the eppointment for any reason, the most senior member of the International Court of Justice, who is not a national of one of the Contracting Parties, shell be invited to make the appointment.
- The Arbitration Tribunal shall rule with a majority vote and its decisions shall be binding. Both Contracting Parties ahall pay the costs of thair own arbitration and of their representative at the heerings. The President's coste and eny other cost ehell be divided equelly between the Contracting Parties.

The Arbitration Tribunal shall lay down its own procedurea.

Article 11 - Relations between Governments

The provisione of this Agreement ehell be applied irrespective of whether or not the Contrecting Perties have diplomatic or conaular relatione.

Article 12 - Application of other Provisions

- 1. If a matter ie governed both by this Agraement and another international agreement to which both Contracting Parties are signatories, or by general international law provisions, the most favourable provisione shall be epplied to the Contracting Parties and to the their investors.
- Party to the inveatora of the other Contracting Party, according to its laws and regulations or other provisions or apecific contract or inveatment authoriaations or egreement, is more favourable than that provided under thia Agreement, the more favourable treetmant shall apply.
- 3. Whenever, after the date when the investment has been made, a modification should take place in lawa, regulations, acts or measures of economic policies governing the inveatment directly or indirectly, the said modification shell not be applied retrospactivaly and the inveetment made under this Agreement shall be protected.

Article 13 - Entry into Force

This Agreement shall become effective as from the date in which the two Contracting Parties notify each other that their respective constitutional procedures have been completed.

Article 14 - Duration and Expiry

- 1. This Agreement shall remain effective for a period of ten (10) years from the date of the notification under Article 13 and ahall remain in force for a further period of five (5) years thereafter, eave if one of the two Contracting Parties withdraws in writing by not later than one year before its expiry date.
- 2. In the case of investments effected prior to the expiry dates, as provided under paragraph 1 of this Article, the provisions of Articles 1 to 12 shall remain effective for a further five (5) years after the aforamentioned datee.

Article 15 - Amendments

This Agreement may be amended in writing by mutual consent.

 Article 16 - Review

This Agreement may be reviewed five (5) years after its entry into force and thereafter at consecutive periods of five (5) years or at euch other time as the Contracting Parties may agree.

In WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being duly authorised thereto by their respective Governments, have signed the present Agreement.

FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE ITALIAN REPUBLIC

fino fines Jones

FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF KENYA

PROTOCOL

On signing the Agraement between the Government of the Italian Republic and the Government of the Republic of Kanya on the Promotion and Protaction of Investments, the Contracting Parties also agreed on the following clauses, which shall be deamed to form an integral part of the Agreement.

General Provision

This Agraement and all provisions thereof referred to "Investments", provided they are made in accordance with the legislation of the Contracting Party in whose tarritory the investment is made, apply as well to the following associated activities:

the organization, control, operation, maintenance and disposition of companies, branches, agencies, offices, factories or other facilities for the conduct of business; the making and performance of contracts; the acquisition, use, protection and disposition of property of all kinds including intellectual property; the borrowing of funds; the purchase, issuance and sale of equity shares and other sacurities; and the purchase of currency for imports.

"Associated activities" also includa, inter alia:

- the granting of franchises or rights under licenses;
- II) the receipt of registrations, licenses, parmits and other approvals necessary for the conduct of commercial activity which shall in any event be issued expeditiously, as provided for in the legislation of the Contracting Parties;
- III) access to financial institutions in any currency, and to credits and currency markets;
- IV) access to funds held in financial institutions;
- V) the importation and installation of equipment necessary for the normal conduct of business affairs, including, but not limited to, office equipment and automobiles, and the export of any aguipment and automobilas so imported;
- VI) the dissamination of commercial information;
- VII) the conduct of market studies;
- VIII) tha appointment of commarcial representatives, including agents, consultants and distributors and their partecipation in trade fairs and other promotional events;
- IX) the marketing of goods and servicas, including through internal distribution and markating systems, as wall as by advertising and direct contact with natural and legal persons of the host Contracting Party;
- X) payment for goods and sarvices in local currency;
- XI) leasing services.

With reference to Article 2

- a) A Contracting Party (or its agencies or instrumentalities) may stipulate with investors of the other Contracting Party, who carry out investment of national interest in the territory of the Contracting Parties, an investment agreement which will govern the specific legal relationship related to said investment.
- b) Neither of the Contracting Parties will eet any condition for the creation, the expansion or the continuation of investments, which may imply the taking over or the imposing of any limitation to the sale of the production on domestic and international markets, or which specifies that goods must be procured locally, or similer conditions.
- c) Each Contracting Party will provide effective means of asserting claims and enforcing rights with respect to investments and investment agreements.
- d) The nationals of either Contracting Party euthorised to work in the territory of the other Contracting Party in connection with an investment as par this Agreement, shall have the right to adequate working conditions for the carrying out of their professional activities, in accordance with the legislation of the host Contracting Party.
- e) According to its laws and regulations, each Contracting Party shall regulete ae favourably as possible the problems connected with the entry, stay, work and movement in ite territory of nationals of the other Contracting Party end membere of their families, performing activities related to investments under this Agreement.
- f) Legal persons constituted under the applicable laws or regulations of one Contracting Party, which are owned or controlled by investors of the other Contracting Party, ehall be permitted to engage top managerial personnel of their choice, regardless of nationality, in eccordance with the legislation of tha host Contracting Party.

With raference to Article 3

All the activities relating to the procurement, sale and transport of raw and processed materials, energy, fuels and production means, as well as any other kind of operation related to them and somehow linked to entrepreneurial activities under this Agreement, shall be accorded, in the territory of each Contracting Party, no lees favourable treatment than the one accorded to similar ectivitiaa and initiatives taken by investors of the host Contracting Party or investors of Third States.

4. With reference to Article 5

Any measure undertaken by one of the Contracting Parties towards an investment effected by an investor of the other Contracting Party, which diminishes financial resources or the value of other assets from the investment or creates obstacles to the activities or substantial prejudice to the value of the same investment, as well as any other measure having equivalent effect, will be considered as one of the measures referred to in paragraph 2 of Article 5.

5. With reference to Article 9

Under Article 9 (3) (b), arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the arbitration standards of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL), as well as pursuant to the following provisions:

a) The Arbitration Tribunal shall be composed of three arbitrators; if they are not nationals of either Contracting Party, they shall be nationals of States having diplomatic relations with both Contracting Parties.

The appointment of arbitrators, when necessary pursuant to the UNCITRAL Rules, will be made by the President of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber, in his capacity as Appointing Authority. The arbitration will take place in Stockholm, unless the two parties in the arbitration have agreed otherwise.

b) When delivering its decision, the Arbitration Tribunal shall in any case apply also the provisions contained in this Agreement, as well as the principles of international law recognized by the two Contracting Parties.

The recognition and implementation of the arbitration decision in the territory of the Contracting Parties shall be governed by their respective national legislations, in compliance with the relevant international Conventions they are parties to.

In WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being duly authorised thereto by their respective Governments, have signed the present Protocol.

In case of any divergence, the English text shall prevail.

FOR THE GOVERNMENT

FOR THE GOVERNMENT

OF THE ITALIAN REPUBLIC

OF THE REPUBLIC OF KENY