GENERAL PRINCIPLES

ARTICLE 2

Respect for the democratic principles and human rights as defined in particular in the Helsinki Final Act and the Charter of Paris for a New Europe, as well as the principles of market economy, including those enunciated in the documents of the CSCE Bonn Conference, underpin the internal and external policies of the Parties and constitute an essential element of partnership and of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3

The Parties consider that it is essential for the future prosperity and stability of the region of the former Soviet Union that the newly independent States which have emerged from the dissolution of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (hereinafter called "Independent States") should maintain and develop co-operation among themselves in compliance with the principles of the Helsinki Final Act and with international law and in the spirit of good neighbourly relations and will make every effort to encourage this process.

In view of the above the Parties consider that the development of their relations should take due account of Ukraine's wish to maintain co-operative relations with other Independent States.

ARTICLE 4

The Parties undertake to consider, in particular when Ukraine has further advanced in the process of economic reform, developments of the relevant Titles of this Agreement, in particular Title III and Article 49, with a view to the establishment of a free trade area between them. The Co-operation Council may make recommendations on such developments to the Parties. Such developments shall only be put into effect by virtue of an agreement between the Parties in accordance with their respective procedures. The Parties shall consult each other in the year 1998 whether circumstances, and in particular Ukraine's advances in market oriented economic reforms and the economic conditions prevailing there at that time, allow the beginning of negotiations on the establishment of a free trade area.

ARTICLE 5

The Parties undertake to examine together, by mutual consent, amendments which it may be appropriate to make to any part of the Agreement in view of changes in circumstances, and in particular of the situation arising from Ukraine's accession to GATT. The first examination shall take place three years after the entry into force of the Agreement or when Ukraine becomes a Contracting Party of GATT, whichever is earlier.

The political dialogue:

- shall strengthen the links of Ukraine with the Community, and thus with the community of democratic nations. The economic convergence achieved through this Agreement will lead to more intense political relations;

- shall bring about an increasing convergence of positions on international issues of mutual concern thus increasing security and stability;
- shall foresee that the Parties endeavour to co-operate on matters pertaining to the strengthening of stability and security in Europe, the observance of the principles of democracy, the respect and promotion of human rights, particularly those of minorities and shall hold consultations, if necessary, on the relevant matters.

ARTICLE 7

Consultations as appropriate shall be held between the Parties at the highest political level.

At ministerial level, political dialogue shall take place within the Co-operation Council established in Article 85 and on other occasions including with the Union Troika by mutual agreement.
