4. The term "territory" means the zones with in the land boundaries, marine and submarine zones, airspace and the areas of the exclusive economic zone and the continental shelf insofar as international law permits the Contracting Party concerned to exercise sovereign rights or jurisdiction in these areas.

Article 2

1. Each Contracting Party shall in its territory promote as far as possible investments by investors of the other Contracting Party and admit such investments in accordance with its laws and regulations. It shall in any case accord such investments fair and equitable treatment.
2. Investments by investors of either Contracting Party shall enjoy full protection and security in the territory of the other Contracting Party. Neither Contracting Party shall in any way impair by arbitrary or discriminatory measures the management, maintenance, use, enjoyment or disposal of investments in its territory of investors of the other Contracting Party.

Article 3

1. Each Contracting Party shall grant investments once admitted and investment returns of the investors of the other Contracting Party a treatment not less favorable than that accorded to investments and investment returns of investors of any third state.
2. In accordance with its laws and regulations, each Contracting Party shall grant investments once admitted and investment returns of the investors of the other Contracting Party a treatment not less favorable than that accorded to investments and investment returns of its investors.
3. Each Contracting Party shall accord the investors of the other Contracting Party in connection with the management, maintenance, use, enjoyment or disposal of investments or with the means to assure their rights to such investments like transfers and indemnification or with any other activity associated with this in its territory, treatment not less favorable than the treatment it accords to its investors or to the investors of a third state, whichever is more favorable.

4. The provisions in paragraph (1), (2) and (3) of this Article shall not, however, relate to privileges granted by either Contracting Party to the investors of a third State by virtue of its membership of, or association with, a customs union, an economic union, a common market or a free trade area.
5. The provisions of this Article shall not apply to tax matters.

Article 4

1. Investments by investors of either Contracting Party shall not be expropriated, nationalized, or subjected to any other measure, the effects of which would be tantamount to expropriation or nationalization by the other Contracting Party except for the public benefit of that contracting Party and against prompt, adequate and effective compensation, provided that these measures are not discriminatory and in accordance with laws and regulations.

Such compensation shall be equivalent to the value of the expropriated investment immediately before the date on which the actual or threatened expropriation, nationalization or comparable measure has become publicly known.

The compensation shall be paid without undue delay and shall carry a rate of return determined on the basis of the market prevailing rate of return (for example LIBOR) until the time of payment; it shall be effectively realizable and freely transferable.

Provision shall have been made in an appropriate manner at or prior to the time of expropriation, nationalization or comparable measure for the determination and payment of such compensation. The legality of any such expropriation, nationalization or comparable measure and the amount of compensation shall be subject to review by due process of law.

2. Investors of either Contracting Party whose investments suffer losses in connection with their investments in the territory of the other Contracting Party owing to war or other armed conflict, revolution, a state of general emergency, or revolt, shall be accorded treatment not less favorable by such other Contracting Party than that accorded by the latter Contracting Party to its own investors. Such payments shall be freely transferable.
3. Investors of either Contracting Party shall enjoy most favored nation treatment in the territory of the other Contracting Party in respect of the matters provided for in this Article.

Article 5

1. If a Contracting Party or any related agency makes a payment to an investor under a guarantee it has assumed in respect of an investment made by that investor in the territory of the other Contracting Party the latter Contracting Party shall recognize the transfer of any rights or claim from the investor or any of its affiliates to the former Contracting Party or any related agency.
2. The subrogated rights or claims shall not exceed the original rights or claims of the investor.

Article 6

Each Contracting Party shall guarantee to investors of the other Contracting Party the free transfer of payments in connection with investments and investment returns they hold in the territory of the other Contracting Party, after the fulfillment of all tax obligations by the investors, in particular:

1. the principal and additional amounts to maintain or increase the investment;
2. the returns;
3. the repayment of loans;
4. the proceeds from the liquidation or the sale of the whole or any part of the investment;
5. royalties or fees;
6. the earnings of natural persons subject to the laws and regulations of the Contracting Party, in which investments have been made;
7. the compensation provided for in Article 4.

Article 7

1. Transfers under Article 4, 5 or 6 shall be made without delay at the prevailing rate of exchange applicable on the date on which the investor applies for the related transfer.
2. This rate of exchange shall, in the absence of a market rate of exchange, correspond to the cross rate - obtained from those rates which would be applied by the International Monetary Fund for conversions of the currencies concerned into Special Drawing Rights.

Article 8

If the laws and regulations of either Contracting Party or obligations under international law existing at present or established hereafter between the Contracting Parties in addition to this Agreement contain a regulation, whether general or specific, entitling investments by investors of the other Contracting Party to a treatment more favorable than is provided for by this Agreement, such regulation shall to the extent that it is more favorable prevail over this Agreement in this context.

Article 9

This Agreement shall also apply to investments made prior to its entry into force by investors of either Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party consistent with the latter's laws and regulations.

Article 10

1. Disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation or application of the Agreement should as far as possible be settled amicably through the diplomatic channels of the two Contracting Parties.
2. If a dispute cannot thus be settled within six months, it shall upon the request of either Contracting Party be submitted to an arbitration tribunal.
3. Such arbitration tribunal shall be constituted ad hoc as follows:
Each Contracting Party shall appoint one member, and these two members shall agree upon a national of a third state as their Chairman to be appointed by the governments of the two Contracting Parties. Such members shall be appointed within two months, and such Chairman within three months from the date on which either Contracting Party has informed the other Contracting Party that it intends to submit the dispute to an arbitration tribunal.
4. If the periods specified in paragraph 3 above have not been observed, either Contracting Party may, in the absence of any other arrangement, invite the President of the International Court of Justice to make the necessary appointments. If the President is a national of either Contracting Party or if he is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the Vice President should make the necessary appointments. If the Vice President is a national of either Contracting Party or if he, too, is prevented from discharging the said function, the member of the court next in seniority who is not a national of either Contracting Party should make the necessary appointments.
5. The arbitration tribunal shall reach its decisions by a majority of votes. Such decisions shall be final and binding. Each Contracting Party shall bear the cost of its own member and the cost of counseling in the arbitration proceedings. The cost of the Chairman and the remaining costs shall be borne in equal parts by the Contracting Parties. The arbitration tribunal may make a different regulation concerning costs. In all other respects, the arbitration tribunal shall determine its own procedure.

Article 11

1. Disputes concerning investments between a Contracting Party and an investor of the other Contracting Party, in connection with these investments in the territory of the former Contracting Party, should be amicably settled as far as possible.

2. If the dispute cannot be settled in the way prescribed in paragraph (1) of this Article within six months of the date the request for the settlement has been submitted, it shall at the request of the investor, be filed to the competent court of law of the Contracting Party in whose territory the investment was made and the investor shall be entitled to submit the case to either:
 - a) The International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) having regard to the applicable provisions of the convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of other State opened for signature at Washington D.C. on 18 March 1965, in the event both Contracting Parties shall have become a party to this Convention; or
 - b) An arbitrator or international ad hoc arbitral tribunal established under the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission of International Trade Law (UNCITRAL). The parties to the dispute may agree in writing to modify these Rules.
3. If the dispute is submitted in accordance with paragraph (2) to the competent Court of Law of the Contracting Party, the investor cannot at the same time seek the international arbitration. If the dispute is filed for arbitration the award shall be binding to both parties and shall not be subject to any appeal or remedy other than those provided for in the said conventions. The award shall be enforced in accordance with domestic law.

Article 12

This Agreement shall be in force irrespective of whether or not diplomatic or consular relations exist between the Contracting Parties.

Article 13

1. This Agreement shall enter into force thirty days after the date on which both Contracting Parties have notified each other, in writing through diplomatic channels, that their respective internal legal procedures have been fulfilled. It shall remain in force for an initial period of ten years and shall continue in force hereafter. After the expiration of the initial period of ten years, this Agreement may be denounced at any time by either Contracting Party giving twelve months' notice.
2. In respect of investments made prior to the date of termination of this Agreement, the provisions of Article 1 to 12 shall continue to be effective for a further period of ten years from the date of termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the respective plenipotentiaries have signed this Agreement.
