Subsection (2) was substituted for the original subsection (2) by section 4 of the Development Investment Amendment Act 2007

PART V

REGULATION OF FOREIGN ENTERPRISES

17. Restriction on carrying on business by foreign enterprise -

(1) No foreign enterprise shall carry on business in the Cook Islands in any activity unless that foreign enterprise is registered pursuant to this Act to carry on business in respect of that activity.

(2) Every person who does any act in contravention of subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $25,000 and to a further fine of $1,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues.

18. Approval to carry on business -

(1) Every foreign enterprise wishing to carry on business in the Cook Islands in any activity shall make application to the Board for approval to carry on business in that activity.

(2) The procedure by which the Board shall consider and approve or decline an application made pursuant to subsection (1) shall be prescribed by regulation.

(3) Every person who for the purpose of obtaining for himself or any other person registration of an enterprise or any activity pursuant to this Act, makes a false or misleading statement in any material particular or supplies any false or misleading information in any material particular commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.

19. Issue of certificate of registration -

On approval being granted to a foreign enterprise to carry on business in respect of an activity or activities under this Part, the Board shall issue to the enterprise a certificate of registration setting out the name of the foreign enterprise and the activity or activities in respect of which it is approved to carry on business.

20. Register of approvals -

The Board shall keep and maintain a register of every approval granted pursuant to this Part and of all terms and conditions attaching to such approvals.

21. Variation of registration -

Upon application being made by a foreign enterprise approved under this Act, the Board may vary all or any of the terms or conditions of the registration of the foreign enterprise.

22. Revocation of registration -

(1) The Board may revoke the registration of an enterprise of a foreign enterprise either wholly or in respect of any approved activity where a foreign enterprise has -

- (a) contravened any law in force in the Cook Islands (including this Act); or
- (c) failed to comply with any term or condition of its registration as a foreign enterprise.

(2) The procedure by which the Board may revoke the registration of a foreign enterprise under subsection (1) shall be prescribed by regulation.

(3) The revocation of the registration of a foreign enterprise pursuant to subsection (1) shall not in any way affect any liability of that foreign enterprise to its creditors or to any person interested in the affairs of the foreign enterprise, or the rights of such creditors or persons, whether or not the liability or right shall have arisen before or after the date that the revocation shall take effect.

23. Continuation of business where registration revoked -

No foreign enterprise shall carry on business in the Cook Islands in any activity after revocation of registration in respect of that activity has taken effect, except insofar as is necessary for the enterprise to wind up its affairs in relation to that activity, but in any event not exceeding 3 months, or such extended time as the Board may allow.

[PART VA APPEAL COMMISSION

23A. Appeal Commission

“(1) Subject to subsection (4), there shall from time to time be appointed an Appeal Commission, which shall exercise the duties, functions and powers of the Commission under this Part.

(2) The Commission shall comprise 5 members appointed by Cabinet, consisting of 3 members recommended by the Minister and 2 members recommended by the Leader of the Opposition.

(3) Cabinet shall, from amongst all persons appointed as members, appoint one of them as chairperson of the Commission.

(4) The Commission shall only be convened upon the Minister receiving an appeal in writing under subclause (5) and the term of appointment of the Commission shall expire upon such appeal being determined by the Commission.

(5) Any person or enterprise dissatisfied with a decision of the Board where that person has applied for registration as a foreign enterprise and for approval to carry on a particular activity or activities, may within 28 days of receiving written advice of the Board's decision, appeal in writing through the Minister to the Commission.

(6) Upon receiving notice of the appeal pursuant to subsection (1), the Commission may, if it considers the registration of that person or enterprise as a foreign enterprise in respect of the activity or activities applied for to be a matter of national importance, or of importance to a particular island or islands, reverse the decision of the Board, subject to such conditions as the Commission may in its discretion impose.

(7) A decision of the Commission made pursuant to this Part shall be conveyed in writing to the Board and where the Commission upholds the appeal, the Board shall register the person or enterprise as a foreign enterprise with approval to carry on the activity or activities approved by the Commission, subject to such conditions as the Commission may have imposed.

(8) A decision of the Commission pursuant to this Part shall be available in respect of every decision of the Board to which this section applies made after the 1st June 2003 and shall in every case have the same effect and shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of this Act, as if the decision was made by the Board pursuant to Part V.

(9) Every decision of the Commission made pursuant to this Part shall be tabled in Parliament by the person appointed as chairperson under subclause (3), within 14 days when parliament is sitting and as soon as possible at the next Parliament session after the decision has been conveyed to the Board under subclause (7).]

Part VA was inserted by section 2 of the Development Investment Amendment Act 2004

PART VI

CONTROL OF TAKEOVERS

(1) No person shall transfer any of the legal or equitable interest in shares or any proprietary interest in -

(a) an enterprise where that transfer has the effect of the enterprise becoming a foreign enterprise; or

(b) a foreign enterprise where that transfer has the effect of increasing the foreign interest in an enterprise; or

(c) an enterprise which is in receipt of an incentive or concession granted pursuant to Part VII, unless the approval of the Board to such transfer or interest has first been obtained.

(2) No person shall increase the share capital or any proprietary interest of -

(a) an enterprise where the increase shall have the effect of the enterprise becoming a foreign enterprise; or

(b) a foreign enterprise where that increase has the effect of increasing the foreign interest in an enterprise; or

(c) an enterprise which is in receipt of an incentive or concession granted pursuant to Part VII, unless the approval of the Board to such increase has first been obtained:

Provided that this subsection shall not apply to any case where the increase of capital or proprietary interest in the enterprise is to all existing shareholders or owners in the same proportions as and upon the same terms and conditions as their existing shareholding or proprietary interest.

(3) For the purposes of this section, any matter or thing (whether in the Cook Islands or elsewhere) having the effect of altering the effective ownership or control of any enterprise which has a direct or indirect interest in any enterprise carrying on business in the Cook Islands, including (a) the transfer of shares or any proprietary interest;

(b) the issue of new shares or proprietary interest; (c) any change in the governing rules, shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be a transfer of shares, or proprietary interest, or increase in share capital or proprietary interest (as the case may be) in the enterprise.

(4) Where the approval of the Board is sought for the purposes of this section, the enterprise concerned or any interested party shall apply to the Board in writing, setting out details of the proposed increase or transfer of shares and particulars of the parties involved.

(5) When considering whether to grant or refuse approval under this section, the Board shall be entitled to take into account whether the shares or proprietary interest has first been offered to Cook Islanders.

(6) The Board may in granting any approval pursuant to this section impose such terms and conditions it thinks fit, in furtherance of the objects of this Act.

(7) The approval of the Board to a transfer of shares or proprietary interest or increase of capital or proprietary interest shall not be unreasonably withheld where in the opinion of the Board, before the transfer or increase or alteration the transferor or the enterprise has taken reasonable steps to endeavour to transfer the shares or proprietary interest or to issue new capital as the case may be, to a Cook Islander. The onus of demonstrating to the Board that reasonable steps have been taken pursuant to this subsection shall lie on the intending vendor.

(8) The approval of the Board shall not be required in the case of the bona fide exercise of powers by a mortgagee, receiver, liquidator, debenture holder or other charge holder acquiring title to shares or a proprietary interest in an enterprise or carrying on any activity lawfully carried on by that enterprise immediately prior to the exercise of those powers for the purpose of enforcing the security or other charge.

25. Public companies -

The provisions of section 24 shall not apply in the case of a public company carrying on business in the Cook Islands in respect of shares traded within or beyond the Cook Islands on a recognised stock exchange and where such trading does not result in a change to the substantial ownership and control of that company.

26. Change in status of enterprise -

Where a foreign enterprise registered pursuant to this Act becomes a Cook Islands enterprise, the Board shall on being satisfied of the change in status, deregister the enterprise as a foreign enterprise, and cause the appropriate register to be noted accordingly.

PART VII

INVESTMENT PRIORITIES, INCENTIVES AND CONCESSIONS

27. Investment Code -

(1) The Queen's Representative may from time to time by Order in Executive Council establish an Investment Code.

(2) The purpose of the Code shall be to inform potential investors as well as the Board and other persons or bodies responsible for planning, promoting or encouraging investment in the Cook Islands, of the policies, priorities and reservations attached to investment in particular areas.

(3) The Code may include particulars of -

- (a) investments and activities which merit encouragement;
- (b) priorities attached to particular investments and activities in general or in respect of particular geographical areas;
- (c) incentives and concessions available to encourage investment either generally or in respect of particular investments (whether by type or geographical location);
- (d) criteria by which foreign investment or a foreign enterprise may be evaluated;
- (f) the kinds of activities reserved for Cook Islands enterprises.

[27A. Investment incentives and concessions established -

(1) Incentives and concessions as specified in the Schedule to the Development Investment Act [1977] are hereby established and shall, notwithstanding any other legislation, override and supersede the effects of any provision therein where and when any or all of these have been granted by Cabinet and, where necessary approved by the Executive Council to any enterprise.

(2) Cabinet may decide from time to time what specific enterprise or activity set out in the Investment Code shall be eligible for any of the incentives and concessions specified in the Schedule to the Development Investment Act 1977.

(3) Except where an application for the incentive or concession relating to the assessment or payment of tax under the Income Tax Act 1997 or the Value Added Tax Act 1997 has been made to the Development Investment Board and received before 28 May 1997, the Development Investment Board may not grant any incentive or concession which would reduce the amount of income tax or value added tax but any grant made by the Board of an incentive or concession in respect of an application made before that date will continue to take effect according to its terms.]

Section 27A was inserted by Paragraph 3 of the Fourth Schedule of the Income Tax Act 1977.

28. Investment Guide -

The Board may from time to time publish an investment guide which may contain particulars of the Investment Code and such other information as the Board thinks desirable for the purpose of promoting the objects of this Act.

29. Application for incentives and concessions -

(1) An enterprise carrying on business in an activity which is eligible for such incentives and concessions as may from time to time be prescribed may apply to the Board to be granted the incentives and concessions established by this Act.

(2) The information to be provided by an applicant, the application fee and procedure by which the Board shall consider and approve an application made pursuant to subsection (1) shall be prescribed by Regulation.

(3) Every person who for the purpose of obtaining for himself or any other person or retaining any incentive or concession, or makes a false or misleading statement in any material particular, or supplies any false or misleading information in any material particular commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.

30. Registration of foreign enterprise not waived -

The grant of an incentive or concession to a foreign enterprise under this Part shall not waive the requirement for that enterprise to be registered pursuant to this Act as a foreign enterprise.

31. Register of incentives and concessions -

The Board shall establish and maintain a register of every incentive or concession granted pursuant to section 36, which register shall include wherever possible an estimate of the monetary value to the enterprise of the incentive or concession.

32. Government departments or agencies to be informed -

(1) The Board shall notify in writing such departments or agencies of Government as shall have an interest in the matter, of every decision made by it under this Part, and in particular -

(a) the incentives and concessions (including any terms and conditions relating thereto) which have been granted, where the administration of such incentives and concessions ordinarily falls within the jurisdiction of that department or agency; and

(b) the assistance the Board requires of the department or agency in order to facilitate the benefit by the enterprise of any incentive or concession.

(2) Every department and agency of the Government shall provide the Board with such assistance as the Board may require in order to promote the policy and objectives of this Act and the Board, and to facilitate the implementation of any object, function or decision of the Board.

33. Variation suspension and revocation of concessions -

(1) The Board may vary or revoke in whole or in part any incentive or concession granted to an enterprise pursuant to this Act where the Board is satisfied that the enterprise has contravened or failed to comply with any law in force in the Cook Islands (including this Act) or has contravened or failed to comply with any term or condition of the granting to it of any incentive or concession.

(2) The procedure by which the Board may vary suspend or revoke any incentive or concession pursuant to subsection (1) shall be prescribed by regulation.

PART VIII

ANNUAL FILING OF INFORMATION

34. Annual filing of information -

(1) Every enterprise registered as a foreign enterprise pursuant to this Act, and every enterprise in receipt of a concession, incentive or benefit granted pursuant to the Development Act 1977 or this Act shall, during the currency of such registration concession or incentive or benefit, file with the Board such particulars as shall be prescribed by Order on or by such date in each year as shall be prescribed.

(2) Every person who fails to comply with subsection (1) commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to a fine of not less than $200 nor more than $2,000.

PART IX

GUARANTEES TO FOREIGN ENTERPRISES

35. Guarantees to foreign enterprises -

There is extended to every foreign enterprise registered pursuant to this Act, the following guarantees -

(a) there shall be no compulsory acquisition or expropriation of the property of any foreign enterprise in the Cook Islands except -

(i) in accordance with due process of law; and

(ii) for a public purpose defined by law; and

(iii) for payment of compensation in a manner prescribed by law.

(b) subject to any law of the Cook Islands, every foreign enterprise shall be entitled -

(i) to remit overseas, earnings and foreign capital;

(ii) to remit amounts necessary to meet payment of principal, interest and service charges, and similar liabilities on foreign loans and the cost of other foreign obligations;

(iii) to remit overseas, compensation received in accordance with subparagraph (a)(iii).

[PART IXA INVESTIGATIVE POWERS

35A. Board may refer matters for investigation -

The Board may from time to time appoint any person or persons having appropriate legal, accounting or other relevant qualifications and experience, to investigate and report to the Board on such matters as are referred to him or them by the Board, for the purpose of the proper exercise of the Board's powers or its duties or functions under this Act.

35B. Enforcement -

(1) The Board or any person appointed by the Board pursuant to section 35A may for the purpose of assisting any investigation by the Board, or ensuring compliance with this Act or any regulations made hereunder -

(a) require any person to provide in writing such information or explanation as the Board may reasonably require for the purpose of enabling the Board to perform its functions under this Act, including any information relevant to a matter being investigated pursuant to section 35A, or for the purpose of ensuring compliance with this Act or relevant to the commission of an offence under this Act;
