 - 1.2. the land plot has been withdrawn from the investor(s) and (or) the selling organization (if any) or the term of the land lease agreement has expired;
 - 1.3. there is an application of the investor (investors) and (or) the implementing organization (if any) for the provision of a land plot for the completion of the construction of an unmothballed object of unfinished construction.

The application of the investor(s) and (or) the implementing organization (if any) with which the investment agreement has been terminated shall be sent to the executive committee no later than six months from the date of the decision to terminate the investment agreement;

1.4. there is documentary evidence of reimbursement by the investor(s) and (or) the implementing organization (if any) of the amounts of benefits and (or) preferences, as well as payment of customs duties, unless exemption is provided in accordance with Article 38 of this Law.

2. The Executive Committee, in accordance with its competence to withdraw and provide land plots in accordance with the procedure provided for by the legislation on the protection and use of lands, shall make the decision specified in Clause 1 of this Article, taking into account:

2.1. the degree of construction readiness of the unmothballed construction in progress;

2.2. assessment of the financial capabilities of the investor (investors) and (or) the implementing organization (if any), including upon completion of the construction of such facility.

Article 40. Sale of an unmothballed object of unfinished construction in case of termination of the investment agreement

1. By decision of the executive committee, in accordance with its competence to withdraw and provide land plots, an unmothballed object of unfinished construction shall be sold at a public auction held in the form of an auction, simultaneously with the sale into private ownership of the land plot necessary for the completion of its construction and maintenance, or the sale of the right to lease such a land plot.

2. Sale of the object specified in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be carried out after informing the pledgee (if such object serves as a security for the fulfillment of obligations of the investor (investors) and (or) the selling organization (if any)) in the order established by the Council of Ministers of the Republic of Belarus.

3. The decision referred to in Clause 1 of this Article may be made if the following conditions are met simultaneously:

3.1. the investment agreement is terminated on grounds other than the performance by the investor(s) and (or) the implementing organization (if any) of their obligations under the investment agreement;

3.2. the land plot has been withdrawn from the investor(s) and (or) the implementing organization (if any) or the term of the land lease agreement has expired;

3.3. the land plot is not provided in accordance with Article 39 of this Law.

4. The initial sale price at an auction of an unmothballed object of unfinished construction may be reduced:

not more than 50 percent inclusive after the first failed auction*, as well as in case of refusal of the sole participant to purchase the auction subject at the initial price increased by 5 percent;

not more than 80 percent inclusive after the failed auction held in accordance with the second paragraph of this part, as well as in the event of the sole participant's refusal to purchase the auction subject at the initial price increased by 5 percent.

If the auction with a decrease of 80 percent of the initial sale price of an unmothballed object of unfinished construction is declared invalid, as well as in the event of the refusal of the sole participant to purchase the subject of the auction at the initial price increased by 5 percent, such an unmothballed object of unfinished construction may be put up for auction with an initial price equal to one base unit. In the event of the sale of an unmothballed object of unfinished construction at an auction with an initial price equal to one base unit, the land plot necessary for the completion of construction and maintenance of this object shall be leased to the buyer without holding an auction in the manner prescribed by the legislation on the protection and use of land.

* The auction is recognized as invalid if the application for participation in it is submitted by only one participant, or no application was submitted for participation in the auction, or only one of the participants appeared at the auction, or none of the participants appeared at the auction.

5. Funds received from the sale of an unmothballed object of unfinished construction shall be divided in proportion to the ratio of the initial sale price of an unmothballed object of unfinished construction and the initial price of the land plot or the initial price of the right to lease a land plot necessary for the completion of construction and maintenance of this object.

The funds received from the sale of a land plot or the right to lease a land plot specified in part one of this paragraph shall be transferred to the local budget.

The following shall be deducted from the funds received from the sale of an unmothballed object of unfinished construction:

expenses for assessing the value of an unmothballed object of unfinished construction, ensuring its safety from the date of the decision to sell it until the date of conclusion of the sale and purchase agreement;

the amounts of privileges and/or preferences subject to reimbursement and penalties (fines, penalties), except for the cases specified in Item 1 of Article 38 of this Law, as well as the amounts of customs payments payable.

6. At the expense of the funds remaining after deduction of expenses and amounts specified in part three of Clause 5 of this Article, the executive committee, by the decision of which the sale of the unmothballed object of unfinished construction was carried out, shall reimburse the investor(s) and (or) the implementing organization (if any) with which the investment contract has been terminated, the amount of documented costs for its construction incurred before the date of the decision on the sale of such object, but no later than the day of termination (suspension) of the decision to permit construction, submitted by the investor (investors) and (or) the implementing organization (if any) together with the auditor's report on the reliability of this amount.

7. In the event of the sale of an unmothballed object of unfinished construction based on the results of an auction, including with an initial price equal to one base unit, and the funds received from the sale of this object are insufficient to reimburse the expenses specified in part three of paragraph 5 of this article, such expenses shall be reimbursed by the investor (investors) and (or) the selling organization (if any) with which the investment agreement has been terminated.

8. If an unmothballed object of unfinished construction was not sold as a result of the auction with an initial price equal to one base unit, such object shall become the property of the relevant administrative-territorial unit.

9. Recovery of the amounts of expenses for assessing the value of an unmothballed object of unfinished construction, ensuring its safety from the investor (investors) and (or) the selling organization (if any) shall be carried out by the executive committee, by the decision of which the sale of such object at public auction was carried out, or by the organization authorized by it.

2. A legal entity or an individual entrepreneur implementing a preferential investment project shall be exempt from:

2.1. land tax for land plots that are in state or private ownership, and rent for land plots that are in state ownership. At the same time, such a benefit applies to land plots provided to them for the construction of investment facilities.

The benefit established by part one of this sub-clause shall be valid, inter alia, in relation to land plots on which there are no capital structures defined as such by tax legislation and legislation on the collection of rent for state-owned land plots.

The land tax benefit established by part one of this sub-clause shall not apply to unauthorized land plots;

2.2. income tax, the obligation to pay which arises in connection with the gratuitous receipt of capital structures (buildings, structures), isolated premises, objects of unfinished construction and other fixed assets transferred for the purpose of implementation of a preferential investment project to the ownership, economic management or operational management of a legal entity implementing a preferential investment project.

Article 47. Privilege for the payment of import customs duties provided for the implementation of preferential investment projects

1. Technological equipment, components and spare parts thereto imported for exclusive use in the territory of the Republic of Belarus for the purpose of implementation of a preferential investment project shall be exempt from import customs duties (taking into account the international obligations of the Republic of Belarus) levied by the customs authorities.

2. The grounds for granting the benefit specified in paragraph 1 of this article shall be:

3. With respect to technological equipment, components and spare parts thereto imported with the application of exemption in accordance with Item 1 of this Article, restrictions on use and (or) disposal shall be in effect until the date of expiry of the term of implementation of the preferential investment project, but not more than five years from the date of placement of such technological equipment, components and spare parts thereto under the relevant customs procedure.

It is not allowed to use technological equipment, components and spare parts thereto, in respect of which the benefit specified in paragraph 1 of this article is granted, for purposes other than the implementation of a preferential investment project. The said goods may be used exclusively on the territory of the Republic of Belarus and shall be in the actual possession, use and (or) disposal of the declarant and (or) persons participating in the implementation of the preferential investment project, with the exception of cases specified in parts three and four of this paragraph.

It is allowed to transfer technological equipment, components and spare parts thereto by the declarant and (or) the person participating in the implementation of the preferential investment project into the possession and (or) use of other persons for the purpose of repair and (or) maintenance, storage, transportation (transportation) or for other purposes provided for by the preferential investment project and related to its implementation.

It is allowed to export technological equipment, components and spare parts to it outside the Republic of Belarus for the purpose of repair and (or) maintenance.

4. Making a decision on exclusion from the list on grounds other than the implementation of a preferential investment project shall be a failure to comply with the objectives and conditions in connection with which the benefit specified in paragraph 1 of this article is granted. Further use of the goods placed under the customs procedure without payment of import customs duties shall be an action in violation of the established restrictions on the use and (or) disposal of such goods, provided that no more than five years have passed with respect to technological equipment, components and spare parts thereto from the date of their placement under the relevant customs procedure.

Article 48. Benefits and (or) preferences in the field of land relations provided in the implementation of preferential investment projects

1. A legal entity or an individual entrepreneur implementing a preferential investment project shall have the right to be provided with a land plot included in the list of plots for the implementation of investment projects, for the construction and maintenance of investment facilities, engineering and transport infrastructure necessary for their functioning (hereinafter for the purposes of this Section, unless otherwise provided, a land plot). The list of such plots is formed in accordance with the legislation on the protection and use of land.

A land plot is provided to a legal entity or an individual entrepreneur:

without holding an auction for the right to lease a land plot, an auction with conditions for the right to design and construct capital structures (buildings, structures), an auction for the sale of land plots into private ownership;

on the rights in accordance with the legislation on the protection and use of land.

Execution of the necessary documents for the allocation of a land plot shall be carried out simultaneously with the performance of construction works in the presence of an act of selection of the location of the land plot (if preliminary approval of the location of the land plot is carried out during the withdrawal and provision of the land plot) and approved design documentation for the construction of an investment facility (construction phases allocated therein).

After making a decision on inclusion in the list, the executive committee in accordance with its competence to withdraw land plots shall withdraw the land plot for state needs. During the construction of investment facilities on the occupied land plots, the fertile soil layer is removed using it on the terms determined by the act of choosing the location of the land plot.

A land plot shall be provided to a legal entity or an individual entrepreneur implementing a preferential investment project in accordance with the legislation on the protection and use of land.

2. In the event of the provision of a land plot in accordance with Paragraph 1 of this Article, a legal entity or an individual entrepreneur implementing a preferential investment project shall be exempt from:

2.1. payment for the right to lease a land plot;

2.2. compensation for losses of agricultural and (or) forestry production associated with the seizure of a land plot from a land user.

Article 49. Benefits and (or) preferences in the field of architectural and construction activities provided for the implementation of preferential investment projects

A legal entity or an individual entrepreneur implementing a preferential investment project, when implementing a preferential investment project, shall have the right to:

Article 50. Period of validity of benefits and (or) preferences in the implementation of preferential investment projects

1. The date of emergence of the right to benefits (except for the privilege on payment of import customs duties) and/or preferences granted for the purpose of implementation of a preferential investment project and established by this Law shall be the date of the decision to be included in the list (the date of commencement of the implementation of the preferential investment project specified in the decision on inclusion in the list, if this date is preceded by the day of the decision to be included in the list).

2. The date of termination (the last day of validity) of the right to privileges (except for the privilege of payment of import customs duties) and/or preferences granted for the purpose of implementation of the preferential investment project in accordance with this Law shall be the date of completion of the implementation of the preferential investment project specified in the decision on inclusion in the list (decision on extension), unless the earlier day of termination (the last day of validity) of such right is provided for by part second of this paragraph.

When the executive committee makes a decision on exclusion from the list on the grounds provided for by paragraph 2 of Article 45 of this Law, the day of termination (the last day of validity) of the right of a legal entity or individual entrepreneur implementing a preferential investment project to benefits and (or) preferences granted for the purpose of implementing a preferential investment project in accordance with this Law shall be the day preceding the date of the decision on exclusion from the List.

3. Privileges and (or) preferences on taxes, fees (duties) and other obligatory payments to the republican and (or) local budgets, budgets of state extra-budgetary funds shall be applied, as well as cease to be applied from the date determined taking into account the requirements of the legislation in accordance with which these taxes, fees (duties) and payments are levied (paid).

CHAPTER 9 REIMBURSEMENT OF THE AMOUNTS OF BENEFITS AND (OR) PREFERENCES. PAYMENT OF IMPORT CUSTOMS DUTIES. PENALTY (FINE, PENALTY)

Article 51. Obligation to reimburse the amounts of benefits and (or) preferences, payment of import customs duties, penalties (fines, penalties)

1. In the event of exclusion of a preferential investment project from the list of preferential investment projects on grounds other than the implementation of a preferential investment project, a legal entity or an individual entrepreneur implementing a preferential investment project shall:

1.1. reimburse the amounts of benefits and (or) preferences granted in connection with the implementation of preferential investment projects in the manner and within the time limits established by the Council of Ministers of the Republic of Belarus;
