PART 4 RECONSIDERATION, APPEALS AND JUDICIAL REVIEW

An Act to protect the national security interests of Singapore by regulating significant investments in, and control of, critical entities. Be it enacted by the President with the advice and consent of the Parliament of Singapore, as follows:

PART 1 PRELIMINARY

1. Short title and commencement

This Act is the Significant Investments Review Act 2024 and comes into operation on a date that the Minister appoints by notification in the Gazette.

2. Purpose of Act

The purpose of this Act is to protect the national security interests of Singapore by regulating significant investments in, and control of, critical entities.

3. General interpretation

In this Act —

“appointed authority” means a public officer, or a body, appointed under section 7(1);

“authorised officer” means an individual appointed under section 5(1) or 8(1);

“competent authority” means the public officer, or the body, appointed under section 4(1);

“designated entity” means an entity that has been designated under section 17(1) as a designated entity;

“entity” means any sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and includes a trust;

“Guidelines on Fit and Proper Criteria” means the Guidelines on Fit and Proper Criteria mentioned in section 54;

“Minister” means the Minister charged by the Prime Minister with the responsibility for this Act under Article 30(1) of the Constitution;

“public authority” means —

(a) any Ministry, department of the Government or Organ of State; or

(b) any body established or constituted by or under any public Act to perform a public function, but excludes a Town Council;

“relevant Minister” has the meaning assigned to that term in section 6(2);

“Town Council” means a Town Council established under section 4 of the Town Councils Act 1988.

PART 2 ADMINISTRATION

4. Competent authority

(1) The Minister may appoint a public officer, or a body established or constituted by or under any public Act to perform a public function (except a Town Council), to be the competent authority for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The competent authority is responsible for the administration of this Act, and may perform such duties as are imposed, and may exercise such powers as are conferred, on the competent authority by this Act, subject to any general or special directions of the Minister.

5. Authorised officers appointed by competent authority and delegation by competent authority

(1) The competent authority may, in relation to this Act or any provision of this Act, appoint any of the following individuals to be an authorised officer to administer this Act, either generally or for any particular provision:

- (a) a public officer;
 - (b) an employee of a public authority;
 - (c) a public officer performing duties in a public authority under a secondment arrangement making available temporarily to the public authority the services of the public officer.
- (2) Every authorised officer appointed under subsection (1)(b) is deemed to be a public servant for the purposes of the Penal Code 1871.
- (3) The competent authority may, for any reason that appears to the competent authority to be sufficient, at any time revoke any appointment as an authorised officer made by the competent authority.
- (4) The competent authority may delegate the exercise of all or any of the powers conferred, or the performance of all or any of the duties imposed, on the competent authority by any provision of this Act (except the power of delegation conferred by this subsection) to an authorised officer, and any reference in a provision of this Act to the competent authority includes a reference to such an authorised officer.
- (5) A delegation under subsection (4) by the competent authority may be general or for a particular case and is subject to any conditions or limitations that are set out in this Act or that the competent authority may specify.

6. Transfer of functions and powers of Minister

- (1) This section applies if the Minister has designated an entity under section 17(1).
- (2) The Prime Minister may direct that all or any of the functions and powers of the Minister under Part 3 (other than section 17 and Division 6) and section 38 be transferred to another Minister (called in this Act the relevant Minister) in respect of the designated entity.
- (3) If any functions and powers of the Minister have been transferred with the Prime Minister's direction under subsection (2) —
- (a) the relevant Minister may, in respect of the designated entity, perform the functions and exercise the powers so transferred in place of the Minister; and
 - (b) any reference to the Minister in the following provisions of this Act includes, in respect of that entity, the relevant Minister mentioned in that subsection:
 - (i) Part 3, other than section 17 and Division 6;
 - (ii) Part 4, other than sections 41, 42 and 45.
- (4) A transfer of functions and powers under subsection (2) is subject to any conditions and restrictions that the Prime Minister may determine.
- (5) The Prime Minister may —
- (a) revoke any direction given under subsection (2); or
 - (b) vary any of the conditions or restrictions mentioned in subsection (4).
- (6) The following matters must be notified in the Gazette as soon as practicable:
- (a) any direction given under subsection (2);
 - (b) any condition or restriction determined under subsection (4);
 - (c) any revocation of a direction under subsection (5)(a);
 - (d) any variation of a condition or restriction under subsection (5)(b).
- (7) Regulations may be made under section 57 to provide for saving and transitional provisions when any transfer of functions and powers under subsection (2) is revoked under subsection (5)(a).

7. Appointed authorities

- (1) A relevant Minister may appoint a public officer, or a body established or constituted by or under any public Act to perform a public function (except a Town Council), to be an appointed authority for the purposes of all or any of the provisions of this Act for which the relevant Minister may act.
- (2) An appointed authority is responsible for the administration of the provisions of this Act for which purpose the appointed authority was appointed, and may perform such duties as are imposed, and may exercise such powers as are conferred, on the appointed authority by this Act, subject to any general or special directions of the relevant Minister.
- (3) If a relevant Minister does not appoint an appointed authority under subsection (1), then, the competent authority —
- (a) is responsible for the administration of the provisions of this Act in respect of the functions and powers transferred to the relevant Minister under section 6(2); and
 - (b) may perform such duties as are imposed, and may exercise such powers as are conferred, on the appointed authority by this Act, subject to any general or special directions of the relevant Minister.
- (4) If a direction in relation to a relevant Minister is revoked under section 6(5)(a), the appointment of any appointed authority appointed by that relevant Minister is also treated as revoked.

8. Authorised officers appointed by appointed authority and delegation by appointed authority

- (1) An appointed authority may, in relation to this Act or any provision of this Act, appoint any of the

(1) An appointed authority may, in relation to this Act or any provision of this Act, appoint any of the following individuals to be an authorised officer to administer this Act, either generally or for any particular provision, in respect of which the relevant Minister of the appointed authority may act:

- (a) a public officer;
 - (b) an employee of a public authority;
 - (c) a public officer performing duties in a public authority under a secondment arrangement making available temporarily to the public authority the services of the public officer.
- (2) Every authorised officer appointed under subsection (1)(b) is deemed to be a public servant for the purposes of the Penal Code 1871.
- (3) An appointed authority may, for any reason that appears to the appointed authority to be sufficient, at any time revoke any appointment as an authorised officer made by the appointed authority.
- (4) If the appointment of an appointed authority is revoked, the appointment of each authorised officer appointed by that appointed authority is also treated as revoked.
- (5) An appointed authority may delegate the exercise of all or any of the powers conferred, or the performance of all or any of the duties or duties imposed, on the appointed authority by any provision of this Act (except the power of delegation conferred by this subsection) to an authorised officer appointed by the appointed authority under subsection (1), and any reference in a provision of this Act to the appointed authority includes a reference to such an authorised officer.
- (6) A delegation under subsection (5) by an appointed authority may be general or for a particular case and is subject to any conditions or limitations that are set out in this Act or that the appointed authority may specify.

9. Delegation by Minister, etc.

- (1) The Minister may delegate the performance or exercise of any of his or her functions or powers under this Act (except the power to make regulations under section 57(1)) to any of the following persons by written notice to the person:
- (a) any of the following officeholders in his or her Ministry:
 - (i) a Second Minister;
 - (ii) a Senior Minister of State;
 - (iii) a Minister of State;
 - (iv) a Senior Parliamentary Secretary;
 - (v) a Parliamentary Secretary;
 - (b) the competent authority appointed by the Minister under section 4.
- (2) A delegation by the Minister under subsection (1) may be general or for a particular case and is subject to any conditions or limitations that are set out in this Act or that the Minister may specify.
- (3) The Minister may, in delegating the performance or exercise of any of his or her functions or powers to the competent authority under subsection (1)(b), authorise the competent authority to subdelegate the performance or exercise of the function or power to an authorised officer appointed by the competent authority under section 5 (called in this Act a subdelegate).
- (4) A subdelegation by the competent authority of the performance or exercise of a function or power delegated to it by the Minister under subsection (1)(b) to a subdelegate is subject to the same restrictions, and has the same effect, as if the subdelegate were the delegate.

10. Delegation by relevant Minister, etc.

- (1) A relevant Minister may delegate the performance or exercise of any of his or her functions or powers under this Act (except the power to make regulations under section 57(2)), either generally or specially, to any of the following persons by written notice to the person:
- (a) any of the following officeholders in his or her Ministry:
 - (i) a Second Minister;
 - (ii) a Senior Minister of State;
 - (iii) a Minister of State;
 - (iv) a Senior Parliamentary Secretary;
 - (v) a Parliamentary Secretary;
 - (b) the appointed authority appointed by the relevant Minister under section 7.
- (2) A delegation by the relevant Minister under subsection (1) may be general or for a particular case and is subject to any conditions or limitations that are set out in this Act or that the relevant Minister may specify.
- (3) A relevant Minister may, in delegating the performance or exercise of any of his or her functions or powers to the appointed authority under subsection (1)(b), authorise the appointed authority to subdelegate the performance or exercise of the function or power to an authorised officer appointed by the appointed authority under section 8 (also called in this Act a subdelegate).
- (4) A subdelegation by the appointed authority of the performance or exercise of a function or power delegated to it by the relevant Minister under subsection (1)(b) to a subdelegate is subject to the same restrictions, and has the same effect, as if the subdelegate were the delegate.

11. Power of delegate, etc.

(1) A delegate or subdelegate who purports to perform a function or exercise a power under delegation or subdelegation under section 9 or 10 —

(a) is taken to perform the function or exercise the power in accordance with the terms of the delegation or subdelegation (as the case may be), unless the contrary is shown; and

(b) must produce evidence of his or her authority to perform the function or exercise the power, if reasonably requested to do so.

(2) A subdelegate to whom a function or power of the Minister or the relevant Minister is subdelegated under section 9(3) or 10(3) (as the case may be) is not authorised to further delegate that function or power to anyone else.

- (a) a general meeting of the entity;
- (b) in the case of an entity that is a business trust — a general meeting of the unitholders of the business trust; or
- (c) in the case of an entity that is a trust other than a business trust — a general meeting of the beneficiaries of the trust.

(3) In ascertaining a person's control of the percentage of the total number of votes that might be cast at a general meeting mentioned in subsection (2), the number of votes that the person is entitled to cast at the general meeting by reason of having been appointed a proxy or representative to vote at the meeting is to be disregarded.

(4) In this Part —

- (a) a reference to the business or undertaking of an entity that is a business trust means the business or undertaking carried on by the trustee or manager of the business trust on behalf of the business trust; and
- (b) a reference to the business or undertaking of an entity that is a trust (other than business trust) means the business or undertaking carried on by the trustee of the trust on behalf of the trust.

14. What holding an equity interest means

(1) A person holds an equity interest under this Part if the person —

- (a) has or is deemed to have an equity interest in accordance with subsections (2) to (8); or
- (b) otherwise has a legal or equitable interest in that equity interest, except for any interest prescribed by regulations made under section 57 as an interest that is to be disregarded.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a person has an equity interest if the person has authority (whether formal or informal, or express or implied) to dispose of, or to exercise control over the disposal of, that equity interest.

(3) It is immaterial that the authority of a person to dispose of, or to exercise control over the disposal

(3) It is immaterial that the authority of a person to dispose of, or to exercise control over the disposal of, the equity interest is, or is capable of being made, subject to restraint or restriction.

(4) It is immaterial, for the purposes of determining whether a person has an equity interest, that the interest cannot be related to a particular share, an interest or a right that gives its holder voting power, or a unit of a business trust, as the case may be.

(5) A person is deemed to have an equity interest if —

(a) any property held in trust consists of or includes the equity interest; and

(b) the person knows, or has reasonable grounds for believing, that the person has an interest under that trust.

(6) A person is also deemed to have an equity interest in an entity if that person —

(a) has entered into a contract to purchase the equity interest;

(b) has a right, otherwise than by reason of having an interest under a trust, to have the equity interest transferred to (or to the order of) that person, whether the right is exercisable presently or in the future and whether on the fulfilment of a condition or not;

(c) has the right to acquire the equity interest under an option, whether the right is exercisable presently or in the future and whether on the fulfilment of a condition or not; or

(d) is entitled (otherwise than by reason of having been appointed as proxy or representative) to vote at — (i) a general meeting of the entity; (ii) in the case of an entity that is a business trust — a general meeting of the unitholders of the business trust; or (iii) in the case of an entity that is a trust other than a business trust — a general meeting of the beneficiaries of the trust in question, to exercise or control the exercise of a right attached to the equity interest, not being an equity interest in which that person has a legal or equitable interest.

(7) A person is not to be deemed as not having an equity interest by reason only that the person has the equity interest jointly with another person.

(8) An equity interest is not to be disregarded by reason only of —

(a) its remoteness;

(b) the manner in which it arose; or

(c) the fact that the exercise of a right conferred by the equity interest is, or is capable of being made, subject to restraint or restriction.

(9) Regulations made under section 57 may provide that any equity interest is to be disregarded for the purposes of this section or any subsection of this section.

15. Meaning of “associate”

(1) In this Part, a person (A) is an associate of another person (B) if —

(a) A is the spouse, or a parent, step-parent or remoter lineal ancestor, or a son, stepson, daughter, stepdaughter or remoter issue, or a brother or sister, of B;

(r) A is a person with whom B enters, or proposes to enter, into an agreement or arrangement (whether oral or in writing and whether express or implied) that relates to any of the following matters: (i) A and B being in a position, by acting together, to control any of the voting power in an entity; (ii) A and B acting together with respect to the acquisition, holding or disposal of equity interests or other interests in an entity; (iii) the power of A and B, by acting together, to appoint or remove — (A) a director of an entity; (B) in the case of an entity that is a business trust — a director of the trustee or manager of a business trust; or (C) in the case of an entity that is a trust other than a business trust and if the trustee of the trust is a corporation — a director of the trustee; (iv) the situation where one or more of the directors of — (A) an entity; (B) in the case of an entity that is a business trust — the trustee or manager of the business trust; or (C) in the case of an entity that is a trust other than a business trust and if the trustee of the trust is a corporation — the trustee of the trust, are accustomed or under an obligation (whether formal or informal) to act in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of A and B acting together;

(s) A controls more than half of the voting power of a holding company of B;

(t) B controls more than half of the voting power of a holding company of A; or

(u) A is related to B in such other manner as may be prescribed by regulations made under section 57.

(2) A corporation (A) and another corporation (B) are deemed to be related to each other for the purposes of this section if A is —

(a) the holding company of B;

(b) a subsidiary of B; or

(c) a subsidiary of the holding company of B.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a corporation (A) is deemed to be a subsidiary of another corporation (B) if —

(a) B controls the composition of the board of directors of A;

(b) B controls more than half of the voting power of A; or

(c) A is a subsidiary of any corporation which is B's subsidiary.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3)(a), the composition of A's board of directors is deemed to be controlled by B if, by the exercise of some power exercisable by B without the consent or concurrence of any other person, B can appoint or remove all or a majority of the directors, and for the purposes of this provision, B is deemed to have power to make such an appointment if —

(a) a person cannot be appointed as a director without the exercise in the person's favour by B of such a power; or

(b) a person's appointment as a director follows necessarily from that person being a director or other officer of B.

(5) In determining whether one corporation (A) is the subsidiary of another corporation (B) —

(a) any shares held or power exercisable by B in a fiduciary capacity is treated as not held or exercisable by B;

(b) subject to paragraphs (c) and (d), any shares held or power exercisable — (i) by any person as a nominee for B (except if B is concerned only in a fiduciary capacity); or (ii) by, or by a nominee for, a subsidiary of B, not being a subsidiary which is concerned only in a fiduciary capacity, is to be treated as being held or exercisable by B;

(c) any shares held or exercisable by any person by virtue of the provisions of any debentures of A, or of a trust deed for securing any issue of such debentures, are to be disregarded; and

(d) any shares held or exercisable by, or by a nominee for, B or its subsidiary (not being held or exercisable as mentioned in paragraph (c)) is to be treated as not held or exercisable by B if the ordinary business of B or its subsidiary (as the case may be) includes the lending of money and the shares are so held or power is so exercisable by way of security only for the purposes of a transaction entered into in the ordinary course of that business.

(6) A reference in this section to the holding company of a company or other corporation is a reference to a corporation of which the last mentioned company or corporation is a subsidiary.

(7) For the purposes of this section, the Depository is not to be regarded as a holding company of a corporation by reason only of the shares it holds in that corporation as a bare trustee.

(8) Regulations made under section 57 may provide that any person or class of persons are not associates of another person for the purposes of any provision of this Part.

(9) In this section —

"Depository" has the meaning given by section 81SF of the Securities and Futures Act 2001;

“Level Y controller”, in relation to a designated entity, means a person who, alone or together with the person’s associates —(a)holds Level Y% or more, but less than Level Z% (if Level Y% is less than Level Z%), of the total equity interests in the designated entity; or(b)is in a position to control Level Y% or more, but less than Level Z% (if Level Y% is less than Level Z%), of the voting power in the designated entity;

“Level Z controller”, in relation to a designated entity, means a person who, alone or together with the person’s associates —(a)holds Level Z% or more of the total equity interests in the designated entity; or(b)is in a position to control Level Z% or more of the voting power in the designated entity.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) and section 18(2) —

“Level A%” means —(a)unless paragraph (b) applies, 5%; or(b)such other percentage (less than or equal to Level B%) as may be prescribed from time to time;

“Level B%” means —(a)unless paragraph (b) applies, 12%; or(b)such other percentage (less than or equal to Level C%) as may be prescribed from time to time;

“Level C%” means —(a)unless paragraph (b) applies, 25%; or(b)such other percentage (less than or equal to Level D%) as may be prescribed from time to time;

“Level D%” means —(a)unless paragraph (b) applies, 50%; or(b)such other percentage as may be prescribed from time to time;

“Level Y%” means —(a)unless paragraph (b) applies, 50%; or(b)such other percentage (less than or equal to Level Z%) as may be prescribed from time to time;

“Level Z%” means —(a)unless paragraph (b) applies, 75%; or(b)such other percentage as may be prescribed from time to time.

(3) The Minister may, for the purpose of paragraph (b) of the definitions of “Level A%”, “Level B%”, “Level C%”, “Level D%”, “Level Y%” and “Level Z%” mentioned in subsection (2), prescribe —
(a)different percentages in respect of —(i)different designated entities;(ii)different classes of designated entities; or(iii)different designated entities within a class of designated entities; and(b)the same percentage for all or any of the definitions.

Division 2 — Designation of and controllers of designated entities

17. Designation of designated entity

(1) The Minister may designate —(a)any entity incorporated, formed or established in Singapore;(b)any entity that carries out any activity in Singapore; or(c)any entity that provides any goods and services to any person in Singapore,if the Minister considers that the designation is necessary in the interest of Singapore’s national security.

(2) Before the Minister designates any entity under subsection (1), the Minister must, unless the Minister considers that it is not practicable or desirable to do so in any particular case —(a)give notice of the Minister’s intention to designate the entity to the entity concerned; and(b)give the entity at least 14 days after the date of the notice to make written representations on the proposed designation.

(3) Once a designation is made under subsection (1), the Minister must, as far as practicable and without delay, give notice of the designation —(a)to the entity that is designated; and(b)to any other person who, in the Minister’s opinion, ought to have notice of the designation.

(4) The Minister may cancel a designation under subsection (1) at any time.

(5) Any designation under subsection (1), and any cancellation of a designation under subsection (4), must be notified in the Gazette as soon as practicable.

18. Notice to Minister by Level A controller

- (1) If a person becomes, on or after the designation date, a Level A controller of a designated entity, that person must, within 7 days after becoming the Level A controller, give notice in writing to the Minister of that fact.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if Level A% is equal to Level B%, Level C% or Level D%.
- (3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.
- (4) In any proceedings for an offence in relation to a contravention of subsection (1), it is a defence for the accused to prove that the accused —(a)was not aware of the contravention when it occurred; and(b)notified the Minister of the contravention within a period of 14 days after becoming aware of the contravention.
- (5) In any proceedings for an offence in relation to a contravention of subsection (1), it is also a defence for the accused to prove that, though the accused was aware of the contravention —(a)the contravention occurred as a result of an increase in the holding of equity interest, or in the voting power controlled, by any of the associates of the accused, in the designated entity;(b)the accused has no agreement or arrangement (whether oral or in writing and whether express or implied) with that associate with respect to the acquisition, holding or disposal of equity interests or other interests, or under which they act together in exercising their voting power, in relation to the designated entity; and(c)the accused notified the Minister of the contravention within a period of 7 days after the contravention.
- (6) Except as provided in subsections (4) and (5), it is not a defence in any proceedings for an offence in relation to a contravention of subsection (1) to prove that the accused did not intend to or did not knowingly contravene subsection (1).

19. Approvals of Minister in relation to equity interests and control of voting power in certain cases

- (1) Except with the prior written approval of the Minister, on or after the designation date —(a)a person must not become a Level B controller, Level C controller or Level D controller of a designated entity; and(b)a Level Y controller or Level Z controller of a designated entity must not cease to be a Level Y controller or Level Z controller of the designated entity.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the transaction through which a person becomes a Level B controller, Level C controller or Level D controller, or ceases to be a Level Y controller or Level Z controller, is entered into before the designation date.
- (3) Except with the prior written approval of the Minister, a person must not, on or after the designation date, become an indirect controller of a designated entity.
- (4) A person must not, on or after the designation date, acquire, as a going concern, the business or undertaking or any part of the business or undertaking of a designated entity unless the person and —(a)the designated entity;(b)in the case of a designated entity that is a business trust — the trustee or manager of the business trust; or(c)in the case of a designated entity that is a trust other than a business trust — the trustee of the trust, have obtained the prior written approval of the Minister.
- (5) On an application for approval under subsection (1)(a) or (3), the Minister may approve the application if the Minister is satisfied that —(a)the person who is to become a Level B controller, Level C controller or Level D controller or an indirect controller of a designated entity, and every associate of that person that the Minister knows is an associate, is a fit and proper person under the Guidelines on Fit and Proper Criteria;(b)having regard to the influence of —(i)the person mentioned in paragraph (a); and(ii)every associate of that person, the designated entity will continue to carry on its business or undertaking; and(c)it is not against the national security interests of Singapore to do so.
- (6) On an application for approval under subsection (1)(b), the Minister may approve the application if the Minister is satisfied that —(a)the designated entity of which the applicant is a Level Y controller or Level Z controller will continue to carry on its business or undertaking despite the applicant ceasing to be a Level Y controller or Level Z controller of the designated entity; and(b)it is not against the national security interests of Singapore to do so.
- (7) On an application for approval under subsection (4), the Minister may approve the application if the Minister is satisfied that —(a)the person acquiring the business or undertaking, or part of the business or undertaking, is a fit and proper person under the Guidelines on Fit and Proper Criteria;(b)the acquisition will not affect the security and reliability of the business or undertaking of the designated entity in Singapore; and(c)it is not against the national security interests of Singapore to do so.
- (8) An approval of the Minister under this section may be granted subject to any conditions that the Minister considers appropriate to impose.
- (9) Any condition imposed by the Minister under subsection (8) has effect despite the provisions of any other written law or anything contained in the memorandum or articles of association, trust deed, or other constitution, of the designated entity in relation to which the application for approval under subsection (1), (3) or (4) is made.
- (10) A person who contravenes —(a)subsection (1), (3) or (4); or(b)any condition imposed under subsection (8), shall be guilty of an offence.

(11) In any proceedings for an offence in relation to a contravention of subsection (1), it is a defence for the accused to prove that —(a) the accused was not aware of the contravention when it occurred; (b) the accused notified the Minister of the contravention within a period of 14 days after becoming aware of the contravention; and (c) if the Minister issued any direction under section 22, 23 or 24 relating to the contravention —(i) the accused complied with the direction within the period determined by the Minister under any of those sections; or (ii) the period determined by the Minister under any of those sections for the compliance of the direction has not expired.

(12) In any proceedings for an offence in relation to a contravention of subsection (1), it is also a defence for the accused to prove that even though the accused was aware of the contravention —(a) the contravention occurred as a result of an increase or decrease in the holding of equity interest, or in the voting power controlled, by any of the associates of the accused, in the designated entity; (b) the accused has no agreement or arrangement (whether oral or in writing and whether express or implied) with that associate with respect to the acquisition, holding or disposal of equity interests or other interests, or under which they act together in exercising their voting power, in relation to the designated entity; (c) the accused took all reasonable steps to notify the Minister of the contravention within a period of 7 days after the contravention; and (d) if the Minister issued any direction under section 22, 23 or 24 relating to the contravention —(i) the accused complied with the direction within the period determined by the Minister under any of those sections; or (ii) the period determined by the Minister under any of those sections for the compliance of the direction has not expired.

(13) In any proceedings for an offence in relation to a contravention of subsection (3), it is a defence for the accused to prove that —(a) the accused was not aware of the contravention when it occurred; (b) the accused notified the Minister of the contravention within a period of 14 days after the contravention; and (c) if the Minister issued any direction under section 22, 23 or 24 relating to the contravention —(i) the accused complied with the direction within the period determined by the Minister under any of those sections; or (ii) the period determined by the Minister under any of those sections for the compliance of the direction has not expired.

(14) Except as provided in subsections (11), (12) and (13), it is not a defence in any proceedings for an offence in relation to a contravention of subsection (1) or (3) to prove that the accused did not intend to or did not knowingly contravene subsection (1) or (3), as the case may be.

20. Duty of designated entity to report changes of equity and control of certain persons

(1) A designated entity that becomes aware that —(a) a person has, on or after the designation date, become a Level A controller, Level B controller, Level C controller or Level D controller of the designated entity; (b) a Level Y controller or Level Z controller of the designated entity has, on or after the designation date, ceased to be a Level Y controller or Level Z controller (as the case may be) of the designated entity; (c) a person has, on or after the designation date, become an indirect controller of the designated entity; or (d) a person has, on or after the designation date, acquired, as a going concern, the business or undertaking or any part of the business or undertaking of the designated entity, must inform the Minister in writing within 7 days after becoming aware of that fact.

(2) A designated entity that contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

21. Void transactions

(1) A transaction that is completed in contravention of section 19(1), (3) or (4) is void.

(2) Any person materially affected by the fact that a transaction is void under subsection (1) or (12) may apply to the Minister for a validation notice in relation to the transaction.

(3) The Minister may issue a validation notice —(a) on an application under subsection (2); or (b) on the Minister's own initiative, if the Minister is satisfied that it is in the interest of Singapore's national security to validate the transaction.

(4) The Minister may issue a validation notice under subsection (3)(a) in relation to a transaction that is completed in contravention of section 19(1)(a), (3) or (4) if the Minister is satisfied that —(a) the person who is to become a Level B controller, Level C controller, Level D controller or indirect controller of the designated entity and every person that the Minister knows is an associate of that person, or who is acquiring the business or undertaking, or part of the business or undertaking, is a fit and proper person under the Guidelines on Fit and Proper Criteria; (b) having regard to the influence of —(i) the person mentioned in paragraph (a); and (ii) every person that the Minister knows is an associate of that person, the designated entity will continue to carry on its business or undertaking; and (c) it is not against the national security interests of Singapore to do so.

(5) The Minister may issue a validation notice under subsection (3)(a) in relation to a transaction that is completed in contravention of section 19(1)(b) if the Minister is satisfied that —(a) the designated entity of which the Level Y controller or Level Z controller has (but for subsection (1)) ceased to be a Level Y controller or Level Z controller will continue to carry on its business or undertaking despite the cessation; and (b) it is not against the national security interests of Singapore to do so.

(6) The Minister may issue a validation notice under subsection (3)(a) in relation to a transaction that is

(6) The Minister may issue a validation notice under subsection (3)(a) in relation to a transaction that is void under subsection (12) if the Minister is satisfied that it is not against the national security interests of Singapore to do so.

(7) The effect of a validation notice issued under subsection (3) is that the transaction to which it relates is not void.

(8) A validation notice may be issued under subsection (3) subject to any conditions that the Minister considers appropriate to specify in the validation notice.

(9) Without limiting the conditions that may be imposed under subsection (8), the Minister may, when specifying any condition under that subsection, further specify that the consequence of a breach of that condition (called in this section a relevant condition) is that the transaction in respect of which the validation notice was issued is void.

(10) A validation notice issued under subsection (3) must be —(a)notified to each person who applied for the validation notice, if any; and(b)published in the Gazette.

(11) A person who had applied for a validation notice under subsection (2) and who fails to comply with any condition specified in the validation notice under subsection (8) shall be guilty of an offence.

(12) If a person who applies for a validation notice breaches a relevant condition specified in the validation notice, the transaction in respect of which the validation notice is issued is void.

22. Remedial directions in respect of increase in equity interests, etc.

(1) This section applies if the Minister is satisfied that —(a)any condition of approval of an application under section 19 imposed on a person (other than a condition imposed for an approval of an application under section 19(1)(b)) has not been complied with;(b)a person has provided false or misleading information or documents in connection with an application for approval under section 19(1)(a), (3) or (4);(c)in the case of a person who had obtained the Minister's approval under section 19(5) or (7) —(i)the person or any associate of that person has ceased to be a fit and proper person under the Guidelines on Fit and Proper Criteria;(ii)that having regard to the influence of the person or of any associate of the person, the designated entity is no longer likely to continue to carry on its business or undertaking; or(iii)it is against the national security interests of Singapore to allow the person to continue to be a Level B controller, Level C controller, Level D controller or indirect controller of the designated entity, or to allow the person to continue to own or manage the business or undertaking, or the part of the business or undertaking, of the designated entity that was acquired, as the case may be; or(d)the Minister would not have granted an approval to a person under section 19(5) or (7) had the Minister been aware, at the time of approval, of circumstances relevant to the person's application for such approval.

(2) If this section applies, the Minister may do any one or more of the following:(a)in the case of a Level B controller, Level C controller or Level D controller of a designated entity —(i)direct the person to take any steps that are necessary, within the period specified by the Minister, to cease to be a Level B controller, Level C controller or Level D controller (as the case may be) of the designated entity;(ii)direct the transfer or disposal (whether generally or to a specified person) of all or any of the equity interests in the designated entity held by the person or any of the person's associates (called in this section and section 25 the section 22(2) equity interests), within the period, and subject to any conditions, that the Minister considers appropriate; or(iii)direct that the transfer or disposal of all or any of the section 22(2) equity interests be restricted, subject to any conditions that the Minister considers appropriate; (b)in the case of an indirect controller of a designated entity, direct the person, or direct —(i)the designated entity;(ii)in the case of a designated entity that is a business trust — the trustee or manager of the business trust; or(iii)in the case of a designated entity that is a trust other than a business trust — the trustee of the trust,to take any steps that are necessary, within the period specified by the Minister, to cease to be such an indirect controller or to cause the person to cease to be such an indirect controller, as the case may be; (c)in the case of a person who acquired, as a going concern, a business or undertaking or a part of a business or undertaking mentioned in section 19(4), direct the person to transfer or dispose of all or any part of the business or undertaking within the period, and subject to any conditions, that the Minister considers appropriate;(d)make any other direction that the Minister considers appropriate.

(3) Before issuing any direction to a person under subsection (2), the Minister must —(a)unless the Minister decides that it is not practicable or desirable to do so, give the person written notice of the Minister's intention to issue the direction and specify a date by which the person may make written representations with regard to the direction; and(b)consider every written representation from the person received on or before the date specified under paragraph (a).

(4) The Minister may, at any time, revoke, vary or discharge any direction under subsection (2) or suspend the operation of any such direction.

(5) A person who fails to comply with a direction under subsection (2) (including a direction that is varied under subsection (4)) within the period specified by the Minister, shall be guilty of an offence.

23. Remedial directions in respect of decrease in equity interests, etc.

(1) This section applies if the Minister is satisfied that —(a)any condition of approval imposed on a person (called in this section a defaulter) for an approval of an application under section 19(1)(b)) has not been complied with;(b)a person (also called in this section a defaulter) has provided false or misleading information or documents in connection with an application for approval under section 19(1)(b);(c)in the case of a person (also called in this section a defaulter) who had obtained the Minister's approval under section 19(6), the designated entity is no longer likely to continue to carry on its business or undertaking because the defaulter ceased to be a Level Y controller or Level Z controller of the designated entity, as the case may be; or(d)the Minister would not have granted an approval to the defaulter under section 19(6) had the Minister been aware, at the time of approval, of circumstances relevant to the person's application for such approval.

(2) If, as a result of a person (called in this subsection the transferee) acquiring any equity interests from a defaulter who is a Level Y controller or Level Z controller of a designated entity (called in this section and section 25 the section 23(2) equity interests), the defaulter ceases to be a Level Y controller or a Level Z controller (as the case may be), the Minister may do any one or more of the following:(a)direct the transferee to take any steps that are necessary, within the period specified by the Minister, to cease to hold all or any of the section 23(2) equity interests;(b)direct the defaulter to take any steps that are necessary, within the period specified by the Minister, to resume being a Level Y controller or Level Z controller, as the case may be;(c)direct that the steps mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) are taken within the period specified by the Minister, and subject to any conditions, that the Minister considers appropriate;(d)direct that the transfer or disposal of all or any of the section 23(2) equity interests be restricted, subject to any conditions that the Minister considers appropriate;(e)make any other direction that the Minister considers appropriate.

(3) Before issuing any direction to a person under subsection (2), the Minister must —(a)unless the Minister decides that it is not practicable or desirable to do so, give the person written notice of the Minister's intention to issue the direction and specify a date by which the person may make written representations with regard to the direction; and(b)consider every written representation from the person received on or before the date specified under paragraph (a).

(4) The Minister may, at any time, revoke, vary or discharge any direction under subsection (2), or suspend the operation of any such direction.

(5) A person who fails to comply with a direction under subsection (2) (including a direction that is varied under subsection (4)) within the period specified by the Minister, shall be guilty of an offence.

24. Remedial directions in respect of breach of conditions of validation notice

(1) This section applies if the Minister is satisfied that —(a)any condition specified in a validation notice under section 21(8) has not been complied with, where the validation notice does not specify that the consequence of breach of the condition is that the transaction in respect of which the validation notice was issued is void;(b)a person has provided false or misleading information or documents in connection with an application for a validation notice under section 21(2);(c)in the case of a person who had applied for a validation notice under section 21(2) and the Minister had issued a validation notice under section 21(4) in relation to a transaction that is completed in contravention of section 19(1)(a), (3) or (4) —(i)the person or any associate of the person has ceased to be a fit and proper person under the Guidelines on Fit and Proper Criteria;(ii)that having regard to the influence of the person or of any associate of the person, the designated entity is no longer likely to continue to carry on its business or undertaking; or(iii)it is against the national security interests of Singapore to allow the person to continue to be a Level B controller, Level C controller, Level D controller or indirect controller of the designated entity, or to allow the person to continue to own or manage the business or undertaking, or the part of the business or undertaking, of the designated entity that was acquired, as the case may be;(d)in the case of a person who had applied for a validation notice under section 21(2) and the Minister had issued a validation notice under section 21(5) in relation to a transaction that is completed in contravention of section 19(1)(b), the designated entity is no longer likely to continue to carry on its business or undertaking because the person ceased to be a Level Y controller or Level Z controller of the designated entity, as the case may be; or(e)the Minister would not have issued a validation notice to a person under section 21(4) or (5) had the Minister been aware, at the time of issuance, of circumstances relevant to the person's application for the validation notice.

(2) If this section applies, the Minister may do any one or more of the following:(a)if the person to whom the validation notice was issued is a Level B controller, Level C controller or Level D controller of a designated entity —(i)direct the person to take any steps that are necessary, within the period specified by the Minister, to cease to be a Level B controller, Level C controller or Level D controller (as the case may be) of the designated entity;(ii)direct the transfer or disposal (whether generally or to a specified person) of all or any of the equity interests in the designated entity held by the person or any of the person's associates (called in this section and section 25 the section 24(2) equity interests), within the time, and subject to any conditions, that the Minister considers appropriate; or(iii)direct that the transfer or disposal of all or any of the section 24(2) equity interests be restricted, subject to any conditions that the Minister considers appropriate;(b)if the person to whom the validation notice was issued is an indirect controller of a designated entity, direct the person, or direct —(i)the designated entity;(ii)in the case of a designated entity that is a business trust — the trustee or manager of the business trust; or(iii)in the case of a designated entity that is a trust other than a business trust — the trustee of the trust,to take any steps that are necessary, within the period specified by the Minister, to cease to be such an indirect controller or to cause the person to cease to be such an indirect controller, as the case may be;(c)if the person to whom the validation notice was issued is a person who acquired, as a going concern, a business or undertaking or any part of a business or undertaking of a designated entity, direct the person to transfer or dispose of all or any part of the business or undertaking within the time, and subject to any conditions, that the Minister considers appropriate;(d)if the person to whom the validation notice was issued is a person who ceased to be a Level Y controller or Level Z controller of a designated entity, direct the person to take any steps that are necessary, within the period specified by the Minister, to resume being a Level Y controller or Level Z controller, as the case may be;(e)make any other direction that the Minister considers appropriate.

(3) Before issuing any direction to a person under subsection (2), the Minister must —(a)unless the Minister decides that it is not practicable or desirable to do so, give the person written notice of the Minister's intention to issue the direction and specify a date by which the person may make written representations with regard to the direction; and(b)consider every written representation from the person received on or before the date specified under paragraph (a).

(4) The Minister may, at any time, revoke, vary or discharge any direction under subsection (2), or suspend the operation of any such direction.

(5) A person who fails to comply with a direction under subsection (2) (including a direction that is varied under subsection (4)) within the period specified by the Minister, shall be guilty of an offence.

25. Effect of remedial directions, etc.

(1) If any direction is issued under section 22(2), 23(2) or 24(2) and has not been carried out, revoked, discharged or suspended —(a)the voting rights in respect of the section 22(2) equity interests, section 23(2) equity interests or section 24(2) equity interests that are subject to the direction are not exercisable, unless the Minister expressly permits those rights to be exercised;(b)the voting power that the person to whom the direction is issued controls, whether alone or together with that person's associates, in the designated entity is not exercisable, unless the Minister expressly permits that power to be exercised;(c)no equity interest in the designated entity is to be issued or offered (whether by way of dividends, rights, bonus or otherwise) in respect of the section 22(2) equity interests, section 23(2) equity interests or section 24(2) equity interests that are subject to the direction, unless the Minister expressly permits that issue or offer; and(d)no amount may be paid (whether by way of dividends, profits, income or otherwise) in respect of the section 22(2) equity interests, section 23(2) equity interests or section 24(2) equity interests that are subject to the direction, unless the Minister expressly authorises that payment.

(2) Subsection (1) and any direction issued under section 22(2), 23(2) or 24(2) have effect, despite —(a)the provisions of any other written law;(b)anything in any listing rules as defined in section 2(1) of the Securities and Futures Act 2001; and(c)the provisions of the memorandum or articles of association, trust deed or other constitution of the designated entity in question.

(3) Any issue or offer of equity interests in contravention of subsection (1)(c) is void.

(4) Any payment made in contravention of subsection (1)(d) is void.

(5) Subsection (1)(d) does not apply in the event of the winding up, dissolution or termination of the designated entity, as the case may be.

Division 3 — Restrictions on winding up, etc.,of designated entities

26 Restrictions on voluntary winding up, etc.

(1) Despite any other written law —(a)a designated entity that is a corporation or limited liability partnership cannot be wound up voluntarily without the consent of the Minister;(b)a designated entity that is a partnership cannot be dissolved —(i)by a partner giving notice to the other partner or partners (as the case may be) of the partner's intention to dissolve the partnership; or(ii)by the partners agreeing to dissolve the partnership,without the consent of the Minister;(c)a designated entity that is a business trust cannot be wound up voluntarily without the consent of the Minister;(d)a designated entity that is a trust (other than a business trust) cannot be wound up or terminated voluntarily without the consent of the Minister;(e)a person must not make any application under section 210 of the Companies Act 1967 or section 71 of the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution Act 2018 in relation to a designated entity that is a corporation, unless that person has served 14 days' notice in writing of that person's intention to make that application on the Minister;(f)no judicial management order under Part 7 of the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution Act 2018 may be made in relation to a designated entity that is a corporation without the consent of the Minister;(g)no interim judicial manager or judicial manager may be appointed under section 94 of the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution Act 2018 in respect of a designated entity that is a corporation without the consent of the Minister;(h)a person must not take any step to enforce any security over —(i)the property of a designated entity; or(ii)in the case of a designated entity that is a trust (including a business trust) — the trust property of the trust,unless that person has served 14 days' notice in writing of that person's intention to take that step on the Minister; and(i)a person must not take any step to execute or enforce any judgment or order of court obtained against a designated entity unless that person has served 14 days' notice in writing of that person's intention to take that step on the Minister.

(2) The Minister must be a party to —(a)any proceedings relating to the making of an order under section 210 of the Companies Act 1967 or section 71 of the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution Act 2018 in relation to a designated entity that is a corporation;(b)any proceedings relating to the making of a judicial management order under Part 7 of the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution Act 2018 in relation to a designated entity that is a corporation;(c)any proceedings under the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution Act 2018 relating to the winding up of the affairs of a designated entity that is a company or an unregistered company;(d)any proceedings under the Limited Liability Partnerships Act 2005 relating to the winding up of the affairs of a designated entity that is a limited liability partnership; and(e)any proceedings before any court for the dissolution, winding up or termination (as the case may be) of any designated entity that is an entity not mentioned in paragraph (c) or (d).

(3) A court must, when deciding any proceedings mentioned in subsection (2), take into consideration any representations made by the Minister in those proceedings.

Division 4 — Control of officers of designated entities

27. Approval of chief executive officer, director, etc., of designated entity

(1) Subject to subsections (5) and (6) —(a)an individual may not be appointed as a chief executive officer, director, or chairperson of the board of directors of a designated entity that is a corporation;(b)an individual may not be appointed as a manager, or become a partner, of a designated entity that is a limited liability partnership; and(c)an individual may not become a partner of a designated entity that is a partnership,without the Minister's approval upon an application made by the designated entity concerned.

(2) An application under subsection (1) must be made in the form and manner prescribed.

(3) Without affecting any other matter that the Minister may consider relevant, the Minister may, in determining whether to grant his or her approval under subsection (4), have regard to any criteria that the Minister may specify by written notice to the designated entity.

(4) The Minister may —(a)approve the application under subsection (1), with or without conditions; or(b)refuse the application.

(5) If a designated entity that is a corporation has obtained the Minister's approval under subsection (4)(a) to appoint an individual as the designated entity's chief executive officer, director, or chairperson of the board of directors, the individual may, without the Minister's approval, be reappointed as chief executive officer, director, or chairperson of the board of directors (as the case may be) of the designated entity immediately upon the expiry of the individual's term of appointment.

(6) If a designated entity that is a limited liability partnership has obtained the Minister's approval under subsection (4)(a) to appoint an individual as the designated entity's manager, the individual may, without the Minister's approval, be reappointed as manager of the designated entity immediately upon the expiry of the individual's term of appointment.

(7) A designated entity that, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

28. Removal of chief executive officer, director, etc.

(1) This section applies if —(a)an individual has been appointed by a designated entity as a chief executive officer, director, chairperson of the board of directors or manager, or becomes a partner of a designated entity, without the approval of the Minister under section 27(4)(a);(b)any condition of approval of an application under section 27(1) has been breached; or(c)the Minister considers it necessary in the interest of Singapore's national security that any individual appointed as chief executive officer, director, chairperson of the board of directors or manager, or that becomes a partner of a designated entity, should not act as such chief executive officer, director, chairperson, manager or partner (as the case may be) of the designated entity.

(2) If this section applies, the Minister may (despite the provisions of any other written law) by written notice direct the designated entity to remove the individual within the period specified by the Minister in the notice —(a)from employment with the designated entity;(b)as chief executive officer, director, or chairperson of the board of directors, of the designated entity; or(c)as manager or partner of the designated entity.

(3) Before directing a designated entity to remove an individual under subsection (2), the Minister must give both the designated entity and the individual an opportunity to be heard.

(4) The Minister may at any time, by written notice to a designated entity, require the designated entity

(4) The Minister may at any time, by written notice to a designated entity, require the designated entity to notify the Minister of any change to any particulars (such as but not limited to residence in Singapore or elsewhere, or nature of appointment) of its chief executive officer, director, chairperson of the board of directors, manager or partner specified in the notice.

(5) A designated entity that, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a written notice under subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence.

(6) A designated entity that, without reasonable excuse, contravenes any requirement imposed under subsection (4), shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction —(a)in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $250 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction; or(b)in any other case, to a fine not exceeding $100,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $10,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.

(7) No civil or criminal liability is incurred by a designated entity, or any person acting on behalf of the designated entity, in respect of anything done (including any notification made) or omitted to be done with reasonable care and in good faith in the discharge or purported discharge of the obligations of the designated entity under this section.

Division 5 — Special administration order

29. Meaning and effect of special administration order

(1) A special administration order is an order of the Minister, made in accordance with section 30, in relation to a designated entity directing that during the period the order is in force, the affairs, business and property of that designated entity are to be managed by a person appointed by the Minister (which may be the competent authority or an appointed authority) —(a)for securing one or more of the purposes specified in subsection (2); and(b)in a manner that protects the interests of the shareholders, unitholders or beneficiaries (as the case may be), and the creditors, of the designated entity.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), the purposes are —(a)the security and reliability of the business, undertaking or activities of the designated entity in Singapore;(b)the survival of the designated entity of the whole or any part of its business or undertaking, as a going concern;(c)the transfer to another person, or (as respects different parts of its business or undertaking) to 2 or more different persons, as a going concern, of so much of the business or undertaking of the designated entity as is necessary to ensure that the obligations of the designated entity in carrying out its business, undertaking or activities may be properly carried out; and(d)the carrying out of the obligations of the designated entity under or in respect of the business, undertaking or activities of the designated entity pending the making of the transfer, as a going concern, of the business or undertaking of the designated entity to any other person or persons.

(3) The Minister may make regulations under section 57 for giving effect to this Division, including —(a)regulations governing the transfer of a business or undertaking of a designated entity mentioned in subsection (2)(c); and(b)if a special administration order is made, regulations for applying, omitting or modifying the provisions of Part 7 of the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution Act 2018.

30. Power to make special administration order, etc.

(1) If the Minister is satisfied that any one or more of the grounds specified in subsection (2) are satisfied in relation to that designated entity, the Minister may make any one or more of the following orders:(a)a special administration order in relation to that designated entity;(b)an order requiring —(i)the designated entity;(ii)in the case of a designated entity that is a business trust — the trustee or manager of the business trust; or(iii)in the case of a designated entity that is a trust other than a business trust — the trustee of the trust,to immediately take any action or to do or not do any act or thing in relation to the business or undertaking of the designated entity that the Minister considers necessary;(c)an order appointing a person to advise —(i)the designated entity;(ii)in the case of a designated entity that is a business trust — the trustee or manager of the business trust; or(iii)in the case of a designated entity that is a trust other than a business trust — the trustee of the trust,in the proper conduct of the business or undertaking of the designated entity.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the grounds specified are the following:(a)the Minister considers it to be in the interest of the security and reliability of the carrying on of the business, undertaking or activities of the designated entity;(b)the Minister considers it to be in the interest of Singapore's national security.

(3) The Minister may make a special administration order in relation to a designated entity despite the commencement of (as applicable) —(a)any proceedings relating to the making of an order under section 210 of the Companies Act 1967 or section 71 of the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution Act 2018 in relation to the designated entity, being a corporation;(b)any proceedings relating to the making of a judicial management order under Part 7 of the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution Act 2018 in relation to the designated entity, being a corporation;(c)any meeting convened under section 94(7) of the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution Act 2018 in respect of the designated entity, being a corporation;(d)any proceedings under the Insolvency, Restructuring and Dissolution Act 2018 relating to the winding up of the affairs of the designated entity, being a company or an unregistered company;(e)any proceedings under the Limited Liability Partnerships Act 2005 relating to the winding up of the affairs of the designated entity, being a limited liability partnership; or(f)any proceedings before any court for the dissolution, winding up or termination (as the case may be) of the designated entity, being an entity not mentioned in paragraph (d) or (e).

(4) Notice of any order under subsection (1) must be given immediately by the Minister to any persons, and in any manner, determined by the Minister.

(5) The Minister may at any time (whether or not the appointment of the person has terminated) fix the remuneration and expenses of a person appointed by an order under subsection (1)(c) to be paid by —(a)the designated entity;(b)if the designated entity is a business trust — the trustee□manager of the business trust; or(c)if the designated entity is a trust other than a business trust — the trustee of the trust.

(6) If —(a)the Minister issues an order under subsection (1) to —(i)a designated entity;(ii)the trustee□manager of the business trust (in the case of a designated entity that is a business trust); or(iii)the trustee of the trust (in the case of a designated entity that is a trust other than a business trust); and(b)the designated entity, the trustee□manager of the business trust, or the trustee of the trust (as the case may be) fails to comply with that order,the designated entity, the trustee□manager of the business trust, or the trustee of the trust (as the case may be) shall be guilty of an offence.

31. Transfer of property, etc., under special administration order

(1) Without limiting sections 29 and 30, a special administration order may provide for the following matters:(a)the transfer to one or more prescribed transferees of —(i)the property, rights and liabilities of a designated entity;(ii)in the case of a designated entity that is a business trust — the property of the business trust, and the rights held and the liabilities incurred by the trustee□manager of the business trust in its capacity as trustee□manager of the business trust; or(iii)in the case of a designated entity that is a trust other than a business trust — the property of the trust, and the rights held and the liabilities incurred by the trustee of the trust in his or her capacity as trustee of the trust,to one or more prescribed transferees;(b)matters that are consequential or related to any such transfer.

(2) If the Minister makes a special administration order providing for any matter mentioned in subsection (1), the Minister must, within the period specified in subsection (4), by notification in the Gazette, establish a scheme for determining the amount of any compensation payable by the prescribed transferee to the designated entity, the trustee□manager of the business, or the trustee of the trust (as the case may be) for the transfer of the property, rights and liabilities.

(3) A scheme established under subsection (2) may provide for —(a)the manner in which any compensation or consideration is to be assessed, including methods of calculation, valuation dates and matters to be taken into account or disregarded when making valuations;(b)the assessment to be made by an independent valuer appointed by the Minister; and(c)the remuneration and expenses of the independent valuer.

4) Subject to subsection (5), the period specified for the purposes of subsection (2) is —(a)within 6 months after the date of the making of the special administration order; or(b)if an application for reconsideration of the making of the special administration order has been made under section 38(1) and the Minister makes an order under section 38(3)(b) or (c) — (i)if no appeal is made against the order made under section 38(3)(b) or (c) — within 6 months after the date on which the order under section 38(3)(b) or (c) is made; or(ii)if an appeal is made against the order made under section 38(3)(b) or (c) and the Reviewing Tribunal dismisses the appeal under section 43(3)(a) — within 6 months after the date on which the Reviewing Tribunal dismisses the appeal.

(5) The period specified in subsection (4) may be extended by agreement of the prescribed transferee and the designated entity, the trustee□manager of the business trust, or the trustee of the trust, as the case may be.(6) In this section, “prescribed transferee” means —(a)the competent authority;(b)an appointed authority; or(c)a person nominated by the Minister.

Division 6 — National security interests directions

32. Directions if national security interests affected

(1) This section applies to any entity that satisfies any of the following conditions:(a)the entity is incorporated, formed or established in Singapore;(b)the entity carries out any activity in Singapore;(c)the entity provides any goods and services to any person in Singapore.

(2) This section applies if —(a)a person (X) —(i)acquires any equity interest in the entity;(ii)acquires control of any voting power in the entity;(iii)disposes of any equity interest in the entity;(iv)disposes of control of any voting power in the entity;(v)becomes an indirect controller of the entity; or(vi)acquires the business or undertaking, or any part of the business or undertaking, of the entity,(each called in this section the transaction); and(b)that entity has acted against the national security interests of Singapore within a period of 2 years after the transaction.

(3) If this section applies, the Minister may, within a period of 2 years and 30 days after the transaction

(3) If this section applies, the Minister may, within a period of 2 years and 30 days after the transaction, publish a notice in the Gazette (called in this Act a review notice) —(a)describing the transaction to which the notice relates;(b)stating X's name and the name of the entity; and(c)stating that the Minister is reviewing the transaction.

(4) The Minister may cancel a review notice at any time by publishing a notice in the Gazette to that effect.

(5) When the Minister has published, and has not cancelled, a review notice in relation to an entity, the Minister may at any time —(a)direct the transfer or disposal (whether generally or to a specified person) of all or any of the equity interests in the entity held by X or any of X's associates (called in this section and section 33 the section 32(5) equity interests), within the period, and subject to any conditions, that the Minister considers appropriate;(b)direct that the transfer or disposal of all or any of the section 32(5) equity interests be restricted, subject to any conditions that the Minister considers appropriate;(c)direct X to transfer or dispose (whether generally or to a specified person) of the control of voting power in the entity, within the period, and subject to any conditions, that the Minister considers appropriate;(d)direct —(i)the entity;(ii)in the case of an entity that is a business trust — the trustee□manager of the business trust; or(iii)in the case of an entity that is a trust other than a business trust — the trustee of the trust,to take any steps that are necessary, within the period specified by the Minister, to cause X to cease to have control of any voting power in the entity or to be an indirect controller of the entity, as the case may be;(e)direct X to transfer or dispose (whether generally or to a specified person) of all or any part of the business or undertaking, within the period, and subject to any conditions, that the Minister considers appropriate;(f)direct —(i)the entity;(ii)in the case of an entity that is a business trust — the trustee□manager of the business trust; or(iii)in the case of an entity that is a trust other than a business trust — the trustee of the trust,to restrict the disclosure of any information relating to the affairs of the entity to any person; or(g)make any other direction that the Minister considers appropriate.

(6) Before issuing any direction to a person under subsection (5), the Minister must —(a)unless the Minister decides that it is not practicable or desirable to do so, give the person written notice of the Minister's intention to issue the direction and specify a date by which the person may make written representations with regard to the direction; and(b)consider every written representation from the person received on or before the date specified under paragraph (a).

(7) The Minister may, at any time, revoke, vary or discharge any direction under subsection (5) or suspend the operation of any such direction.

(8) A person who fails to comply with a direction under subsection (5) (including a direction that is varied under subsection (7)) within the period specified by the Minister, shall be guilty of an offence.

(9) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b), a certificate issued by the Minister charged with the responsibility for internal security, stating that that Minister is satisfied that the entity mentioned in the certificate has acted against the national security interests of Singapore, is conclusive evidence that the entity has so acted.

33. Effect of directions issued if Singapore's national security interests affected

(1) If any direction is issued under section 32(5), then, until the direction is carried out or is revoked, discharged or suspended —(a)the voting rights in respect of the section 32(5) equity interests are not exercisable, unless the Minister expressly permits those rights to be exercised;(b)the voting power that the person to whom the direction is issued controls, whether alone or together with that person's associates, in the entity is not exercisable, unless the Minister expressly permits that power to be exercised;(c)no equity interest in the entity is to be issued or offered (whether by way of dividends, rights, bonus or otherwise) in respect of the specified equity interests, unless the Minister expressly permits that issue or offer; and(d)no amount may be paid (whether by way of dividends, profits, income or otherwise) in respect of the section 32(5) equity interests, unless the Minister expressly authorises that payment.

(2) Subsection (1) and any direction issued under section 32(5) have effect, despite —(a)the provisions of any other written law;(b)anything in any listing rules as defined in section 2(1) of the Securities and Futures Act 2001; and(c)the provisions of the memorandum or articles of association, trust deed or other constitution of the designated entity in question.

(3) Any issue or offer of equity interests in contravention of subsection (1)(c) is void.

(4) Any payment made in contravention of subsection (1)(d) is void.

(5) Subsection (1)(d) does not apply in the event of a winding up, dissolution or termination of the entity, as the case may be.

Division 7 — General provisions relating to information gathering and penalties

34. Power of Minister to obtain information relating to this Part

(1) The Minister, the competent authority, or an appointed authority (called in this section the requesting authority) may, by written notice — (a)direct any entity to provide to the requesting authority requesting authority) may, by written notice —(a)direct any entity to provide to the requesting authority any information relating to any holding of equity interests or control of voting power in the entity for the purposes of this Part; or(b)direct any entity to obtain from any of its shareholders, partners, unitholders or beneficiaries (as the case may be) (called in this section a relevant person) and to provide to the requesting authority, any information relating to the relevant person that may be required to ascertain or investigate into any holding of equity interests or control of voting power in the entity for the purposes of this Part.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1)(b), the notice in that subsection may require the entity to obtain and provide the following information:(a)whether the relevant person holds an equity interest in the entity, as beneficial owner or as trustee;(b)if the relevant person holds the equity interest in the entity as trustee, to indicate as far as that relevant person is able to —(i)the person for whom that relevant person holds the interest (either by name or by other particulars sufficient to enable that person to be identified); and(ii)the nature of that person's interest.

(3) The requesting authority may, by written notice, require any shareholder, partner, unitholder or beneficiary (as the case may be) (X) of any entity, or any person (Y) that appears from information provided under this subsection or subsection (1) to hold an equity interest in the entity, to provide to the requesting authority any information relating to X or Y (as the case may be) that may be required for the purpose of ascertaining or investigating into any holding of equity interests or control of voting power in the entity.

(4) Without limiting subsection (3), the notice in that subsection may require X or Y to provide the following information:(a)whether X or Y holds the equity interest in the entity as beneficial owner or as trustee;(b)if X or Y holds the equity interest in the entity as trustee, to indicate as far as X or Y can —(i)the person (Z) for whom X or Y holds the equity interest (either by name or by other particulars sufficient to enable Z to be identified); and(ii)the nature of Z's equity interest;(c)whether any equity interests or voting power is the subject of an agreement or arrangement described in section 15(1)(r) and, if so, to give particulars of the agreement or arrangement and the parties to it.

(5) A person that —(a)fails to comply with a written notice under subsection (1) or (3);(b)in purported compliance with such notice, knowingly or recklessly provides any document or information that is false or misleading in a material particular; or(c)intentionally alters, suppresses or destroys any document or information which the person has been required by such notice to provide,shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction —(d)in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $250 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction; or(e)in any other case, to a fine not exceeding $100,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $10,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.

35. Provision of documents and other information

(1) Without limiting section 34, the Minister, the competent authority, or an appointed authority (called in this section the requesting authority) may by notice require any person to provide, within a reasonable period specified in the notice, all documents and information relating to any matter as are reasonably required by the requesting authority to carry out the functions or duties assigned to the requesting authority by or under this Act, which are within the knowledge of that person or are in that person's custody or under that person's control.

(2) The power to require a person to provide any document or information under subsection (1) includes the power —(a)to require that person, or any person who is or was an officer or employee of that person, to provide an explanation of the document or information;(b)if the document or information is not provided, to require that person to state, to the best of that person's knowledge and belief, where it is; and(c)if the information is recorded otherwise than in legible form, to require the information to be made available to the requesting authority in legible form.

(3) A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a notice under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

(4) A person who —(a)intentionally alters, suppresses or destroys any document or information which the person is required by a notice under subsection (1) to provide; or(b)in providing any document or information required under subsection (1), makes any statement which the person knows to be false in a material particular or recklessly makes such a statement,shall be guilty of an offence.

(5) If a person fails to comply with a notice under subsection (1), the court may, on the application of the requesting authority, make any order that the court thinks fit to secure compliance with the notice and any such order may provide that all the costs or expenses of and incidental to the application are to be borne by such person or by any officer of an entity who is responsible for the failure.

(6) The requesting authority through an authorised officer may, at any time after the expiry of the period specified in the notice mentioned in subsection (1), enter any building or place where the requesting authority has reason to believe that any document or information, in respect of which the requesting authority has given the notice, may be found, and seize or take extracts or copies of any such document or information.

(7) The requesting authority is entitled without payment to keep any document or information, or any copy or extract thereof, provided to it under subsection (1) or obtained under subsection (6).

(8) Except in the performance of the person's functions or duties or when required to do so by any court or under any written law, no person who is or has been a member, an officer, an employee or an agent of the requesting authority or a member of a committee of the requesting authority may disclose any information relating to the affairs of the requesting authority or of any other person which has been obtained by the person in the performance of the person's functions or duties.

(9) A person who contravenes subsection (8) shall be guilty of an offence.

(10) A person who is guilty of an offence under subsection (3), (4) or (9) shall be liable on conviction —(a)in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both; or(b)in any other case, to a fine not exceeding $100,000.

36. Penalties under this Part

(1) A person who is guilty of an offence under this Part for which no penalty is expressly provided shall be liable on conviction —(a)if the offender is an individual —(i)to a fine not exceeding —(A)in the case of an offence under section 18(3), 19(10), 20(2) or 21(11), or an offence under section 32(8) if the offender is a person mentioned in section 32(2)(a), the higher of the following amounts:(AA)the transaction value;(AB)$500,000; or(B)in any other case, $500,000; or(ii)to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years,or to both and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $50,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction; or(b)if the offender is not an individual, to a fine not exceeding —(i)in the case of an offence under section 18(3), 19(10), 20(2) or 21(11), or an offence under section 32(8) if the offender is a person mentioned in section 32(2)(a), the higher of the following amounts:(A)the transaction value;(B)$1 million; or(ii)in any other case, the higher of the following amounts:(A)10% of the annual turnover of the offender's business;(B)$1 million,and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $100,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.

(2) For the purposes of this section —(a)the transaction value is —(i)in the case of an offence under section 18(3) — if the offender became a Level A controller of a designated entity by acquiring any equity interest or voting power in any entity — the value of the consideration for that acquisition;(ii)in the case of an offence under section 19(10) —(A)the value of the consideration for the acquisition of any equity interests or voting power in any entity by which the offender became a Level B controller, Level C controller, Level D controller or indirect controller of a designated entity;(B)the value of the consideration for the transfer or disposal of any equity interests or voting power in any entity by which the offender ceased to be a Level Y controller or Level Z controller of a designated entity; or(C)the value of the consideration for the acquisition by the offender of the business or undertaking, or the part of the business or undertaking, as a going concern;(iii)in the case of an offence under section 20(2) —(A)the value of the consideration for the acquisition of any equity interests or voting power in any entity by which a person became a Level A controller, Level B controller, Level C controller, Level D controller or indirect controller of the relevant designated entity;(B)the value of the consideration for the transfer or disposal of any equity interests or voting power in any entity by which a person ceased to be a Level Y controller or Level Z controller of the relevant designated entity; or(C)the value of the consideration for the acquisition of the business or undertaking, or part of the business or undertaking, of the relevant designated entity acquired by a person;(iv)in the case of an offence under section 21(11) — if the offender is a party to the transaction to which the validation notice relates (being an acquisition, transfer or disposal mentioned in sub-paragraph (ii)(A), (B) or (C)) — the value of that transaction determined in the manner set out in sub-paragraph (ii)(A), (B) or (C); or(v)in the case of an offence under section 32(8) — if the offender is the person mentioned in section 32(2)(a), the value of the consideration for the acquisition or disposal mentioned in section 32(2)(a)(i), (ii), (iii), (iv) or (vi); and(b)the annual turnover of a person's business is ascertained from the person's latest audited accounts.

(3) To avoid doubt, the value of a transaction that is void under section 21(1) or (12) is to be determined as if the transaction were not void.

PART 4 RECONSIDERATION, APPEALS AND JUDICIAL REVIEW

37. Interpretation of this Part

In this Part —“appealable decision” means any of the following decisions of the Minister:(a)a designation of an entity under section 17(1);(b)a refusal to approve an application for approval under section 19(1), (3) or (4);(c)a condition imposed under section 19(8);(d)a refusal to issue a validation notice under section 21(3)(a);(e)a condition imposed under section 21(8);(f)a direction under section 22(2), 23(2) or 24(2);(g)a refusal to approve an application under section 27(4)(b);(h)a direction of removal under section 28(2);(i)a decision to make any order under section 30(1);(j)a direction under section 32(5) or a variation of a direction under section 32(7);

"appellant" means the following in relation to an appealable decision:(a)the designated entity, if the appealable decision is within paragraph (a) of the definition of "appealable decision";(b)the person who applied for approval under section 19(1), (3) or (4), if the appealable decision is within paragraph (b) of the definition of "appealable decision";(c)the person on whom the condition was imposed under section 19(8), if the appealable decision is within paragraph (c) of the definition of "appealable decision";(d)the person who applied for the validation notice under section 21(2), if the appealable decision is within paragraph (d) of the definition of "appealable decision";(e)the person on whom the condition was imposed under section 21(8), if the appealable decision is within paragraph (e) of the definition of "appealable decision";(f)the person to whom the direction was issued under section 22(2), 23(2) or 24(2), if the appealable decision is within paragraph (f) of the definition of "appealable decision";(g)the designated entity who applied for approval under section 27(1), if the appealable decision is within paragraph (g) of the definition of "appealable decision";(h)the individual in relation to whom the application for appointment was refused under section 27(4)(b), if the appealable decision is within paragraph (g) of the definition of "appealable decision";(i)the individual who was removed under section 28(2), if the appealable decision is within paragraph (h) of the definition of "appealable decision";(j)the person affected by the order under section 30(1), if the appealable decision is within paragraph (i) of the definition of "appealable decision";(k)the person to whom the direction was issued under section 32(5) or in relation to whom the direction was varied under section 32(7), if the appealable decision is within paragraph (j) of the definition of "appealable decision";(l)any other person aggrieved by the appealable decision.

38. Reconsideration by Minister of appealable decision

(1) An appellant may apply to the Minister for reconsideration of an appealable decision (called in this Part the initial appealable decision).

(2) An appellant must apply under subsection (1) —(a)in a prescribed manner; and(b)before the time specified in the initial appealable decision, being a time that must not be later than the 14th day after the initial appealable decision was given to the appellant.

(3) Upon receiving an application under subsection (1) for reconsideration, the Minister must —(a)wholly cancel the initial appealable decision;(b)substitute the initial appealable decision, with another appealable decision (called in this Part the substitute appealable decision) that the Minister might have made under this Act; or(c)affirm the initial appealable decision.

(4) When a substitute appealable decision is made by the Minister under subsection (3)(b), the Minister must immediately give the appellant the substitute appealable decision in the same manner as the initial appealable decision.

(5) When an initial appealable decision is cancelled by the Minister under subsection (3)(a) or affirmed under subsection (3)(c), or a substitute appealable decision is made under subsection (3)(b), the Minister must give notice (as the case may be) of —(a)the cancellation or affirmation (as the case may be) to every person given the initial appealable decision; or(b)the making of a substitute appealable decision to the appellant who applied for reconsideration of the initial appealable decision.

(6) There is to be no further reconsideration after a decision under subsection (3).

(7) An application to reconsider the Minister's initial appealable decision does not affect the operation of that decision or prevent the taking of action to implement that decision, and the initial appealable decision to be reconsidered must be complied with unless the determination of the reconsideration indicates otherwise.

39. Appeal to Reviewing Tribunal

(1) Subject to subsection (2) and section 44(1), an appellant who is aggrieved by an initial appealable decision affirmed on reconsideration under section 38 or a substitute appealable decision made on reconsideration under section 38 may, on payment of such fee as may be prescribed, appeal to a Reviewing Tribunal in accordance with this Part.

(2) No appeal may be made under this Part to a Reviewing Tribunal unless the appellant has first applied under section 38(1) to the Minister to reconsider the initial appealable decision and the Minister has substituted or affirmed that decision under section 38(3).

(3) An initial appealable decision affirmed on reconsideration under section 38 continues to take effect despite any appeal under subsection (1) against the decision and remains in effect until the decision is reversed on appeal.

(4) A substitute appealable decision made on reconsideration under section 38 takes effect despite any appeal under subsection (1) against the decision and remains in effect until the decision is reversed on appeal.

40. Reviewing Tribunals — composition

(1) One or more bodies each called a Reviewing Tribunal is established by this section.

(2) Every Reviewing Tribunal consists of 3 individuals, each of whom is appointed by the President on the advice of the Cabinet subject to subsections (3) and (4).

(3) An individual must not be, or be appointed as, a member of any Reviewing Tribunal if he or she is not a citizen of Singapore.

(4) The chairperson of every Reviewing Tribunal must be a Supreme Court Judge.

(5) A member of a Reviewing Tribunal must vacate office at the end of a period of 3 years starting the day of his or her appointment, but is eligible for reappointment.

(6) A member of a Reviewing Tribunal may resign his or her office by giving notice in writing to the President.

(7) In the performance of his or her functions and duties under this Act, the members of a Reviewing Tribunal each have the same protection and immunity as a Judge of the High Court.

(8) The proceedings of a Reviewing Tribunal are deemed to be judicial proceedings and every member of the Reviewing Tribunal is deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Penal Code 1871.

41. Reviewing Tribunal — remuneration and other terms

(1) The Minister may pay to the members of a Reviewing Tribunal out of moneys provided by Parliament any remuneration or allowances that the Minister may, with the approval of the President, fix.

(2) The remuneration and other terms of service of each member of a Reviewing Tribunal must not be altered to his or her disadvantage during his or her continuance in office as such.

42. Reviewing Tribunal — resources

(1) All expenses of every Reviewing Tribunal are to be defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament.

(2) The Minister must appoint a Secretary to the Reviewing Tribunals and any other public officers that are necessary for a Reviewing Tribunal to discharge its functions under this Act.

43. Reviewing Tribunal — function

(1) It is the function and duty of every Reviewing Tribunal to consider and determine any appeal made under section 39 and served on the Secretary to the Reviewing Tribunals.

(2) A Reviewing Tribunal may summarily dismiss any appeal which it determines to be frivolous or vexatious.

(3) A Reviewing Tribunal may determine an appeal made to the Reviewing Tribunal by —(a)dismissing the appeal and confirming the decision appealed against; or(b)revoking the decision appealed against.

(4) Every Reviewing Tribunal has to carry out its work expeditiously.

(5) A Reviewing Tribunal's decision under subsection (3) is final.

44. Procedure before Reviewing Tribunal

(1) Except where a Reviewing Tribunal, having regard to all the circumstances, is satisfied that it is equitable to do so, the Reviewing Tribunal must not consider or determine any appeal that is made more than 30 days after the Minister affirmed the initial appealable decision or substituted the initial appealable decision with the substitute appealable decision (as the case may be) upon reconsideration under section 38(3).

(2) A Reviewing Tribunal may at any stage in the appeal proceedings, and without calling for a defence from the Minister whose decision is appealed against, dismiss an appeal made to or before it if the Reviewing Tribunal is satisfied that —(a)the appellant is not a person entitled to appeal under section 39;(b)the bringing of the appeal is or the proceedings of the appeal are frivolous or vexatious, which may include taking into account whether the appellant has habitually and persistently, and without any reasonable ground, made vexatious appeals to the Reviewing Tribunal; or(c)the appellant has, without reasonable excuse, failed to comply with the time delimited by any provision of rules made under section 45 for the submission of any notice, document or other information in the appeal proceedings, or with any direction of the Reviewing Tribunal under those rules.

(3) Subject to rules made under section 45, every Reviewing Tribunal is entitled to determine its own procedure in relation to any appeal under section 39 made to or before the Reviewing Tribunal.

45. Rules for Reviewing Tribunal proceedings

(1) Rules may be made by the Minister to prescribe the practice and procedure to be followed on, or in connection with, the hearing or consideration of any proceedings or appeal (including, if applicable, the mode and burden of proof and the admissibility of evidence) before a Reviewing Tribunal.

(2) In particular, the rules made under subsection (1) may include —(a)requiring persons making an appeal to take any preliminary steps, and to make any disclosures, that may be specified in the rules for the purpose of facilitating a determination whether the making of the appeal is frivolous or vexatious;(b)enabling or requiring a Reviewing Tribunal to hear or consider any proceedings or appeal without the person who brought the appeal having been given full particulars of the reasons for any conduct which is the subject of the proceedings or appeal;(c)the need to secure that matters which are the subject of proceedings or appeals brought before or made to a Reviewing Tribunal are properly heard and considered;(d)prescribing the circumstances and manner in which appeals in relation to the same decision, or involve the same or similar issues, may be consolidated or heard.

same decision, or involve the same or similar issues, may be consolidated or heard together;(e)enabling or requiring a Reviewing Tribunal to take any steps in exercise of their jurisdiction in the absence of any person (including the person bringing the proceedings or making the appeal and any legal representative of the person);(f)enabling or requiring a Reviewing Tribunal to give a summary of any evidence taken in its absence to the person by whom the proceedings were brought or (as the case may be) to the person who made the appeal;(g)securing that information is not disclosed to an extent, or in a manner, that is contrary to the national security interests of Singapore, the prevention or detection of serious crime, the economic wellbeing of Singapore or the continued discharge of the functions of any of the intelligence services of Singapore; and(h)providing for the manner in which the interests of a person who has made an appeal under section 39 are to be represented, such as for the appointment in accordance with the rules, by such person as may be determined in accordance with the rules, of a person to represent those interests.

(3) All rules made under subsection (1) must be presented to Parliament as soon as possible after publication in the Gazette.

46. Limited judicial review

(1) Every determination, order and other decision of a Reviewing Tribunal or any Minister (including a certificate issued under section 32(9)) made or purportedly made under this Act —(a)is final; and(b)is not to be challenged, appealed against, reviewed, quashed or called in question in any court, except in regard to any question relating to compliance with any procedural requirement of this Act or the regulations or rules governing that determination, order and other decision.

(2) A determination, an order and other decision includes a determination, an order and other decision purportedly made, proposed to be made, or required to be made, under this Act or any regulations or rules if there were not an excess of jurisdiction or a failure to exercise jurisdiction, in the making of the determination, order or other decision.
